IN THE BEE TO-DAY

WEATHER.

The local forecast for to-day is fair, slightly warmer in the morning, colder in the evening with flurries of snow. For Saturday, fair, colder, with a cold wave.

Observer Hagen talks on the weather conditions as follows:

The storm referred to yesterday has dropped southward into the St. Lawrence valley and has spread over the entire lakes with its center at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., and its southern limit at Detroit.

Toledo's temperature is influenced by this storm and the warm wave which was moving this way yesterday, but this afternoon the temperature will fall. A cold wave developed in the northwest last night and at 8 o'clock this morning the following low temperatures were reported: Qu 'Apelle, 28 degrees below; Minnedosa, 22 degrees below; Battleford, 28 degrees below; Swift Current, 18 degrees below; Winnepeg, 20 degrees below. The lowest temperature in the United States is 16 degrees below at St. Vincent, Minn. Below zero exists throughout the west north of the 40th parallel and west of Chicago. This cold wave, as well as its predecessor will damage the orange and sugar cane crops of Florida and Louisania. Clear weather prevails except among the lakes, where it is cloudy and snowing. The nights temperature here yesterday was 13 degrees; highest this morning, 24 degrees. The temperature rose during the night.

Forecast for Ohio and Indiana—Snow flurries, followed by clearing; colder Saturday; winds becoming northwest.

For Illinois and Wisconsin—Fair; colder; northwest winds.

For Michigan—Snow flurries, followed by clearing; colder; northwest winds.

DUTIES ON WOOL TO GO,

At Least so Far as the House is Concerned.

Text of the Bill to be Introduced by Mr. Springer and Passed by the Democrats.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Chairman Springer, of the ways and means committee, has given out the text of his free wool bill, though it has not been introduced in the house or approved by a majority of the ways and means committee.

It provides that on and after the first day of January, 1893, all imported wool, hair of the camel, goat, alpaca and other like animals, and all wools on the skin, all noils top waste, slubbing waste, roving waste, ring waste, yarn waste and woolen rags, mungo and flocks should not be exempt from duty; that the duties per pound in paragraphs 391, 392, 394, 395, 396, 397, and 398 of the act of Oct. 1, 1890, and the duties per square imposed in paragraphs 399, 400, 401, 402, 403, 404, 405, 406 and 407 be repealed, and only the ad valorem duties imposed shall thereafter be levied; that the articles mentioned in paragraph 408 shall be subject to the rate of duty imposed by the act imposed on carpets or carpeting of like character or description, and that the articles mentioned in paragraph 340 shall thereafter be subject to a duty of 30 per ad valorem.

The effect is to wipe out what are known as the compensatory duties to manufacturers, made because of their being required to pay duty on raw wool. The proposed 30 per cent ad valorem is equivalent to a reduction (besides compensatory duties) of from 10 to 20 per cent on roping, roving and top wool partly advanced in manufacture and not specially provided for.

CROOKED OFFICERS.

STOLE THIRTY THOUSAND.

A County Treasurer Who Made Money Rapidly.

He Has Left for Parts Unknown and the Officers Are Trying to Find His Trail.

Ottumwa, Iowa, Jan. 8.—Ex-County Treasurer Lane was to have turned over his books to his successor on Monday, but pleaded that he had business at Mystic and would return at noon.

Nothing has been heard from him since. Expert accountants have examined his books, which show that during eight years of his official career his peculations amounted to $30,000.

The affair is surrounded in considerable mystery. It cannot be ascertained that he bought a ticket anywhere except to Mystic, although he wished to invest $100 in one to some point which he would not disclose.

The experts will finish their work to-morrow, when the methods of Lane's peculations will be fully known.

A DYNAMITE PLOT.

English Police Claim to be on the Trail

Of a Conspiracy to Rob and Kill.

United States Influence Behind the Scheme.

Bomb Makers in Prison in London.

Scotland Yard Detectives Have Worked a Long Time on the Case and Now Claim to Have Landed Big Game.

London, Jan. 8.—The dynamite plotters having, it is said, connections in the United States and on the continent, who were arrested last night at Walsall, near Birmingham, were formally charged before a magistrate this morning, and were remanded in order to enable the police to complete the chain of evidence being formed against them.

These arrests, following closely on the explosion at Dublin castle, have caused a sensation, and, naturally, it is inferred that the dynamiters are in some way connected with the explosion at Dublin.

It is known, however, that the Scotland Yard detectives have been working for months on clues furnished them from the United States in the effort to unravel an extensive anarchist conspiracy which was said to exist in England.

Rumors to that effect got in print, but the police authorities ridiculed the whole affair and claimed that there was no such plot in course of investigation.

In spite of these denials, it became known that the police were keeping a strict watch upon a number of foreigners who are suspected of plotting against the peace of the realm.

At Walsall, Inspector Melville had a so-called socialist club under supervision and he became convinced that some of its members were engaged in the manufacture of dynamite bombs. Deaken, a well-known anarchist, was found to be in close touch with the club at Walsall and he was secretly arrested, upon arrival in London, and, last night Inspector Melville and a force of police raided the socialists club at Walsall, and arrested Victor Cailus, described as a clerk; Frederick Charles, said to be a moulder, and a woman said to be the wife of Cailes; they were charged with conspiring with Deaken to manufacture dynamite bombs for the purpose of outrage.

The bombs were reported to have been intended for use in extorting money from rich men and for the use of anarchists desiring to settle differences of opinion with the crowned heads of Europe.

The bomb manufacturers were said to be in receipt of remittances from the United States. The woman, Marie Cailes, who passed as the wife of Victor Cailes, and who was arrested last night in company with the latter, was allowed her liberty by the police soon after the prisoners were remanded to-day.

It is rumored that the woman has turned queen's evidence; in other words that she has expressed her willingness to betray the secrets of her companions with the view of bringing about their conviction.

During the examination of the prisoners this morning the chief of police of Walsall was placed upon the witness stand. He placed in evidence a specimen of dynamite bombs found in possession of the prisoners and also showed the magistrate a metal bolt or cap intended to fit on top of the bombs when the latter were loaded.

The chief of police said that he would be able, at a future examination to show that the prisoners had control of materials used in making such bombs. For the present, he added, he only desired to ask for a remand of one week pending further investigations to be made and in view of the fact that important instructions were expected from the home secretary in regard to certain features in the case.

The prisoner Cailes, when shown the specimen bomb, said that he had never seen it or any similar bomb until it was placed before him in the police station last night. He denied having any connection with a dynamite conspiracy and his fellow prisoner, Frederick Charles, adopted the same line of defense.

Their woman companion said but little during the examination, but, as already stated, she is said to have afterwards informed the police that she was willing to betray her companions.

HEIDELBERG'S TROUBLE.

The Faculty Acted Hastily and May Regret the Stand Taken—The Regents to Take Action.

Tiffin, O., Jan. 8.—Every one of the thirty students of Heidelberg University whom the faculty requested to leave the institution for aiding in the organization of Greek letter fraternities without the consent of the authorities, have withdrawn and with them about ten others, and most of them have gone to other colleges.

The following is nearly a complete list of those who have left the institution: J. A. Bean, St Clairsville, Pa.; T. H. Medd, Collegeville, Pa.; Lafayette Schock, Tiffin; Howard Lott, Tiffin; W. F. Fouse, Akron; Ernest Abbott, Green Spring; H. E. Hibshman, Tiffin; Walter Hibshman, Tiffin; H. A. Barnhart, Pittsburg; O. P. Fouse, St. Petersburg, Pa.; G. T. N. Beam, St. Clairsville, Pa.; Reginald Leister, Tiffin; Irving Bretz, Tiffin; Geo. Rohn, Tiffin; Robert Swigart, Tiffin; Ned Hatcher, Tiffin; Joseph Spangler, Akron; J. Halderman, Akron; Orin Rider, Bettsville; Noble Groff, Tiffin; Will Raber, Tiffin; W. H. Culver, Cleveland; C. L. Paden, Tiffin; Irving Conkle, Bellvue; Edward Baltzley, Massillon; James Watson, Tiffin; R. H. Spencer, Mt. Pleasant, Pa.; E. E. Imhoff, East Ringgold, Pa.; H. Wengerd, Prospect, Pa.

The faculty did not await the action of the board of regents in the matter, but summarily dismissed the students when they refused to apologize for their conduct and, inasmuch, as the rules of the institution, which have been furnished the students, contained no clause against the organization of fraternities, it is believed that there will be music in the air when the regents pass upon the action of the faculty.

RECEIVED A VERDICT.

Wapakoneta, O., Jan. 8.—(Special)—To-day finished the celebrated slander case of Thomas Higgins against Ellen Fitzgibbons, who sued for $5,000 damages. Mrs. Fitzgibbons circulated a report that Higgins had stolen her meat that she kept stored in a cellar. Higgins received judgment for $75, having proved his innocence.

BRUTAL COCKING MAIN.

Sports from All Over the Country Witness the Event.

New York, Jan. 8.—The most interesting cocking main that has taken place in years was begun in Newark, N. J., last night. It was literally a match between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. Usually the big mains have been between the north and south.

This was, therefore, a new departure and a large amount of money was wagered on the result. The men furnishing the birds were Arthur B. Suit of Suitland, Prince Georges county, Md., and Anthony Green, of Sacramento, Cal. The main was arranged a month ago, and the terms were $100 a battle and $1,000 on the main.

Four battles were won by Maryland and three by California.

CRAZY STUDENT.

London, Jan. 8.—Borles, the crazy student who fired at the house of commons buildings, was arraigned to-day and remanded. He is pronounced insane. He is a descendant of Kate Douglas, who enabled Mary, Queen of Scots, to escape in 1568 by barring the door with her bare arm against the soldiers.

MILLION FOR THE FAIR.

New York, Jan. 8.—The chamber of commerce adopted resolutions to-day calling on the legislature for an appropriation of not less than $1,000,000 for the representation of the state at the world's fair in 1893.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 8.—Leon C. Labelle son of the late Capt. Labelle, ex-member of parliament of Montreal, has been arrested charged with the murder of his wife.

Mrs. Labelle was found dead on the floor of her house December 28 from the effects of carbolic acid. The pair had lived unhappily together.

GEN. MILES IN CHICAGO.

He Fears Little Trouble on the Border.

The United States Troops Will Not Find It Hard Work to Keep Mexicans on Their Own Territory.

Chicago, Jan. 8.—Gen. Nelson A. Miles and party returned from Washington yesterday. The general was seen at the Virginia in the afternoon by a reporter, and said:

"My visit to Washington had no official significance. My wife and I went there to attend the marriage of Miss Rachel Sherman."

"Do you think the troubles on the Merican frontier will be of serious consequence, general?"

"I anticipate no serious trouble. So far as our government is concerned all we have to do is to keep the insurgents off from our territory. That is the worse of it. This trouble is not surprising. There are a lot of fellows down there ready to fight at any time. I think the Mexican army capable of subduing the rebels. The Mexican government has about 25,000 troops, while Garza is said to have only about 5,000."

"Do you thing the clerical party in Mexico is using influence in favor of Garza?"

"As to that I cannot say."

A MURDERER AT HEART.

Jesus Bruno Martinez Executed in Belam.

While Embracing the Chief of Detectives He Pulled a Knife From Under His Coat and Stabbed Him.

City of Mexico, Jan. 8.—Jesus Bruno Martinez, convicted of the murder of a jeweler in this city, was executed in the precincts of Belam prison yesterday.

Just before undergoing the final sentence he took leave of his friends and of the prison officials. While he was in the act of embracing, according to Mexican usage, the chief of the secret police who had been particularly active in bringing Martinez to justice, the latter drew a knife from under his coat and stabbed the chief three times, though not fatally. He was overpowered and shot without further delay.

THE LAW'S TECHNICALITIES

Adelbert D. Slye May Escape Punishment.

The Warrant for His Arrest Was Faulty—His Pals in a Like Situation.

St. Louis, Jan. 8.—Adelbert D. Slye, the Glendale train robber, who is now in jail here, is being illegally restrained, as the warrant is faulty.

Were he to make a fight to gain his release on a writ of habeas corpus, and no other action was taken by the police to hold him, he could easily accomplish his purpose. The same error also exists in the warrants against the other members of the gang.

As the robbery was committed in St. Louis county, the proper place, Circuit Attorney Clover says, to have obtained the warrant was in St. Louis county. The robbers can, under no circumstances be tried in St. Louis on any other charge unless it is proven that they brought stolen money into the city or the case is brought to St. Louis on a charge of venue.

COLORED CATHOLICS.

An Interesting Meeting in Philadelphia.

Archbishop Ireland Thinks No Distinction Should Be Made on Color Lines in Parochial Schools.

Philadelphia, Jan. 8.—At the session of the colored Catholic congress the committee report indorsing the founding of a national organization of colored Catholic societies with the view, among other objects, of the establishment of a fund for the building of churches and furnishing educational facilities among the race, was adopted and the name selected for the organization was St. Peter Claver's Benevolent and Aid association.

A letter of greeting from Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, was read, in which the archbishop expressed his conviction that no distinction should be made as to color of pupils in parish schools.

Frederick L. McGhee, of St. Paul, in an exhaustive paper on "National Institutions," took the ground that the system of separate schools for black and white throughout the greater portion of the land was the most threatening evil.

AWFUL SLAUGHTER

Another Terrible Mine Explosion Reported.

Over Two Hundred Men Believed to be Dead.

Those Who Escaped Were Badly Injured.

Pitiful Scenes at the Top of the Shaft.

Of the Three Hundred and Fifty Men at Work Underneath the Ground Only One Hundred and Twenty Had Reached the Surface at Last Reports.

South McAllister, I. T., Jan. 8.—The report of a mine disaster near Krebbs, I. T., is confirmed by dispatches from there this morning. Already ten bodies have been taken out.

Reports differ as to the number of men entombed in the mine, but it is believed over one hundred and fifty men were at work when the explosion occurred and it is feared that none of them are now alive.

Two Hundred Killed.

South McAlister, I. T., Jan. 8.—(Bulletin)—Late reports place the number of killed at over 200.

Each Bulletin More Alarming.

South McAlister, I. T., Jan. 8.—Another report from the mine disaster at Krebbs places the number of missing men at 225.

Awful News Confirmed.

South McAlister, I. T., Jan. 8.—News of the mine disaster at Krebbs, five miles east of here, is coming in very slowly. It is learned that at the time of the explosion nearly 350 men were in the shaft. Most of them had stopped work for the day and were waiting their turn to ride out in the cage.

They had congregated near the bottom of the shaft and that locality is completely jammed with dead bodies. It is stated that 85 men succeeded in reaching the open air by means of an abandoned tunnel.

About forty miners were rescued by lowering of buckets at the hands of the rescuing party outside the shaft.

At daylight ten dead bodies were carried to the surface. They were so badly bruised and blackened as to be scarcely recognizable.

The mouth of the pit is surrounded by a crowd of men, women and children, nearly all of whom have relatives in the mine. Their grief is pitiable and their prayers and cries are agonizing as they beseech the rescuing party to increase their efforts to save their loved ones.

Of the 85 men who reached safety by means of the old tunnel, over half of them received injuries more or less severe and many of them are so badly injured by shock and bruises that it is feared they will not recover.

It is believed the explosion was caused by firing a shot when the mine was partially filled with gas.

At the present writing (8 a. m.) 223 miners are unaccounted for. Of this number it is believed nearly one hundred and perhaps more are already dead. Owing to the excitement at the scene of the disaster and distance from a telegraph office it is impossible at present to get a list of the dead and injured.

HE BET ON THE HORSES.

New York, Jan. 8.—Parker C. Leonard, who was treasurer of the open board clearing house, of 48 Broad street, was arrested this morning charged with misappropriating to his own use $4,033.13 of the funds of the company. The money is said to have been squandered on horse racing.

HAD TO PAY UP.

New York, Jan. 8.—The wires of the Gold and Stock Telegraph company were connected with the stock exchange this morning and the ticker company having agreed to pay the $100 per day demanded by the stock exchange for the use of the quotations.

MISS WISE'S PERSECUTORS.

Important Arrest Made in Port Huron.

An Alleged Accomplice of the Men Who Tortured Her to Make Her Give Up Her Money.

Port Huron, Mich., Jan. 8.—Henry Z. Rogel was arrested here this morning charged with complicity in a robbery committed at Mansfield, O., on December 18 last, when the residence of Phoebe Wise was entered, and the woman terribly tortured until she disclosed the whereabouts of her valuables.

BLAINE'S HEALTH.

Action To Be Taken Against Countries Opposed to Reciprocity.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Secretary Blaine spent the morning in his library at home with his private secretary, Mr. Dent, going over a number of documents which had been transmitted from the state department for his examination. When the United Press representative saw him he had apparently entirely recovered from the attack of Wednesday and was engaged at work with his usual zest. He said he felt quite well and had been able to eat a satisfactory breakfeast of bouillon and toast.

Secretary Blaine has notified the countries not coming under his reciprocal scheme that on March 15 the president will retaliate.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.

New York, Jan. 8.—Fire destroyed the two story building, No. 803 Monroe street, Brooklyn, occupied by the Brooklyn Slate Manufacturing company, and a row of two-story frame buildings adjoining. The loss will reach $40,000.

Chicago, Jan. 8.—Opening: Wheat—May, 92 5-8c. Corn—January, 38 3-8c; February, 38 3-4c; May, 41c. Oats—May, 31c. Pork—May, $11 30. Lard—May, $6 42 1-2. Ribs—May, $5 77 1-2.

TO STUDY OIL.

Paris, Jan. 8.—It is announced that the ministry of commerce will send two commissioners to the United States in order to study petroleum question.

HERE'S HOT STUFF.

Representative Heller Indites Some Letters,

And Hon. James M. Brown, P. M., Takes a Hand,

Dealing Out a Few Terse and Caustic Sentences

In the Style for Which He Has Become Noted.

Mr. Heller Gives Slim Reasons for His Flop — His Treatment of Leading Republicans— The End Is Not Yet.

Now that the campaign for United States senator has practically ended, the day of settlement has come, and there is evidence of much affliction for the republican ranks for some time to come.

All on account of broken promises.

But, according to the evening republican organ, promises made before election to secure a nomination are not considered a go.

Of course this would only be true if a Sherman man changed to Foraker.

Mr. Heller is on the rack just now.

It is a matter of political history and which the Bee duly chronicled, that the would-be representative, before the convention, made promises to the Sherman people that, in the event of his nomination, he would cast his vote for the return of John Sherman to the United States senate.

This he did not do.

The promise was not founded on street talk, but, as the boys would say, he furnished the documents, and they are given below.

The Bee, always serving the public, has been enabled to secure copies of some very interesting correspondence, which is mighty good reading, save that it shows up the uncertainty of the republican politician residing [illegible] county.

There always admiration for the man who, conscientiously, takes a position and remains firm, but even those who receive the benefit of the wabbler's course have but little if any respect for him when they have served their purpose.

But to the correspondence.

Shortly after the election in November, the Bee with the newspapers of the state, printed interviews with representatives and senators-elect relative to their position on the senatorial question.

It will be remembered that Messrs. Flickinger and Heller stated they were unequivocally for Sherman, while Mr. Griffin was willing to abide by the sentiments of his constituents, which it may be said, he never bothered himself about discovering, and there are those who are uncharitable enough to say he never cared a cent what the sentiments were. He was for Foraker, and so remained. Flickinger alone proved true to Sherman, Heller taking another tack.

Heller wrote his sentiments to Senator Sherman as well, and the friends of the senator were happy in the consciousness of having two out of three votes from Lucas. In the meantime Kent Hamilton, Joe Ford, John Kumler and a few other ex-Shermanites secured a change of front in Mr. Heller's case, and the next step was to acquaint Mr. Sherman of his contemplated reversal of opinion. It was this last move which brought out the following spicy letter from the peppery Hon. James M. Brown, which, as stated above, throws considerable light on the movements of the managers before and after the convention and election

Peruse the letters carefully:

Toledo, Ohio, Dec. 23, 1891.

Hon. Oliver P. Heller, Whitehouse, O.:

Dear Sir—I have just received from Senator Sherman a letter, purporting to have been written by you to him, of which the following is a copy:

Whitehouse, O., Dec. 18, 1891.

Hon. John Sherman, Mansfield, O.:

Dear Sir—After careful investigation I find that a very large majority of the republicans of Lucas county are in favor of J. B. Foraker for senator. Therefore am compelled to give him my support.

Truly yours,
O. P. HELLER.

This letter being written but three days after a declaration by you, in the presence of four of your personal friends, that you intended to stand by your solemn pledge made prior to the convention that nominated you, that you would support Senator Sherman, and after you had, subsequent to your election, written Senator Sherman the letter hereinafter copied, is not only a surprise to him, but more so to me, and to all of his friends here who have known of your [illegible]

There are some things which are of more value to a man than legislative honors, and the privilege of voting for a senator of the United States, and these are his individual honor, integrity and manhood. About a year ago, in a conversation with [illegible] you said, "Politically I have but one ambition, and that is to go to the legislature," and said it was an honorable aspiration, and did not see why you should not gratify it. Some months later, when the time of the election for members of the general assembly was advancing, Col. Waldorf and myself drove out to your house, something more than 20 miles, to see you. We informed you that we had come all of that distance to talk with you relative to your being a candidate for the legislature. We said, as friends of Senator Sherman, and on account of his great experience, long and faithful services to the country, we believed he should be returned to the United States senate as his own successor; that we were disposed to support you for nomination as one of the candidates for the legislature from this county, and that we believed you could be nominated and elected, but before we could pledge our support, and that of our friends, we desired to know what your position was and would be upon that subject. You replied to us that you had always been an admirer of Senator Sherman, that he was your choice for senator, and that you would say to us, and we could say to our friends, that if you were nominated and elected you would give Mr. Sherman your support for re-election. We said to you that with that understanding we, and Mr. Sherman's friends, would do all we could for your nomination and election.

Had you stated to us at that time, that you were not in favor of Senator Sherman, or that you preferred another, or that you felt that it was not proper for you to express yourself upon that subject, we would have understood you, and would have frankly informed you that we should look for some one else, whose views coincided fully with our own. But you expressed no uncertainty. You did not hesitate nor equivocate, but fully and without reserve made the pledge, and we in good faith accepted it.

We left you with that pledge of honor. We informed the friends of Mr. Sherman that you had made such a pledge, and that you were an honorable man and would keep it. We and they, all went to work, and in the face of all opposition, they, and they alone, secured your nomination. You know that the opponents of Senator Sherman did not support you in the convention. You know they did all that they could to defeat you in the convention. You were not only nominated, but you were likewise triumphantly elected.

Some days after the election, when it was being boldly claimed, that all of the representatives-elect from Lucas county were opposed to Senator Sherman, we felt it was due to you, to Senator Sherman and to his friends, that a declaration should be made. Mr. Waldorf and myself again visited you, and suggested the propriety of your making public your purpose, in reference to the matter. You said that after the canvass you had made through the county, you were of opinion that a majority of the republicans of the county were favorable to Gov. Foraker, but that in furtherance of your pledge made before the nominating convention, you proposed to stand by Senator Sherman, and were willing to, and did then and there send Senator Sherman a letter, of which the following is a copy:

Whitehouse, Ohio, Nov. 6, 1891.

"Hon. John Sherman, Mansfield, Ohio:

"Dear Sir—I have seen the artcle in the Cincinnati Gazette to the effect that all of the representatives of Lucas county are for Mr. Foraker for senator. I wish to say to you that I am in favor of your renomination and election, and I shall give you my full support in the caucus, and if nominated shall vote for your election. I am, truly yours,

"O. P. HELLER."

That letter has ever since been in the possession of Senator Sherman, and he has had no reason since that time, until the receipt of your letter of the 18th of this month, to suspect that you did not intend to abide by your promise.

On the 15th day of this month, in an interview between yourself, Judge Austin, Mr. Flickinger, Col. Waldorf and myself, you at my request, renewed your intention to adhere to your pledge made before the nominating convention, to give your support to Senator Sherman.

The first intimation any of us had of any other intention on your part came from an alleged interview between yourself and Mr. Ford, published in the Daily Blade of yesterday, and the receipt by this morning's mail of your letter of December 18 addressed to Senator Sherman and copied above. Of this change of purpose, and of the intention to write such a letter, you spoke not a word to any of the men to whom you made the sacred pledge to support Senator Sherman, or to any of the men who worked and voted for your nomination. Between the 15th and 18th of the present month you seemed to have fallen into the hands of the very men who did all they could to defeat you in nomination, because you were known to be a Sherman man, and as the result you were induced to write the letter to Senator Sherman above referred to.

I do not believe that letter or pretended interview in the Blade has the approval of either your judgment or your conscience. You cannot go back on the pledge of honor you made to us and the friends of Senator Sherman. If you could put them back in the position they occupied when that pledge was made, and when they in good faith accepted it, you might do so. But you cannot do that now. You have received the full benefit of their fidelity and support. You are now about to enter upon the duties of an office, to which you would never have been nominated had you not received their support upon the faith of the pledge you then made. You cannot disregard that pledge and retain either your manhood or your honor. You cannot disregard that pledge and expect to retain either the respect or good-will of your neighbors. You cannot disregard that pledge and retain your own self-respect. The only way that you can have the approval of your own conscience, or the respect of your fellow-men, will be to stand by the pledge that made it possible for you to occupy the office to which you have been elected. It matters not if there should be a majority opposed to Senator Sherman in this county (all of which I deny); that fact doesn't effect or modify the sanctity of force of your pledge. Your pledge was to support Senator Sherman if you were nominated and elected. You were both nominated and elected. Your pledge stands. It must be religiously fulfilled, or even the men who refused you suppport, but are now using you, will despise you and set you down as a man "weighed in the balance and found wanting." For the sake of your own good name and honor, for the sake of the friends who trusted you and supported you, for the sake of the honorable soldier record you have borne, for the sake of your children that you are to leave behind you, do not let it be truthfully said, that you pledged your honor, and on the faith of that pledge obtained a position, but afterwards went back on your pledge.

The senatorial contest will soon be over, and they who refused you support in your nomination, but who want to use you now, will have no further use for you, but the consciousness of violated faith and unfulfilled pledges will remain with you as long as life endures.

I have written this letter in kindness, but in great earnestness. I and the great body of men, who I believe to-day compose a majority of the republican party in this county, have implicitly trusted to your honor and integrity. It is for you to say whether that trust has been misplaced, or whether your pledge shall be fully and honorably redeemed.

The relations heretofore existing between us, warrant me in asking from you a full and careful consideration of this letter, and a frank and full statement as to whether you will carry out your pledge or not. I am, very truly yours,

JAMES M. BROWN.

An effort was made to convince Mr. Heller that he was not pursuing a course which would inure to his credit, and in fact was not representing the views of Lucas republicans. This the gentleman claimed he desired to learn, and with this in view, and after the above letter had been forwarded, Mr. David Robison, Jr., and Hon. N. H. Swayne, representing a number of his constituents, went to Whitehouse on Saturday, December 26, and endeavored to secure from Heller a promise to meet the friends of Senator Sherman, that they might discuss the situation with him. Heller consented and fixed the Monday following for the meeting, promising to be present.

The committee set about to gather together a number of republicans at the office of Mr. Horace S. Walbridge, and at the hour agreed upon among those present were such reliable party men as James Secor, Hon. William Baker, M. J. Wilcox, Gen. J. S. Kountz, H. S. Walbridge, Henry Spielbusch, W. H. H. Smith, Fred Ritter, W. A. Gosline, Judge J. H. Doyle, Hon. N. H. Swayne, James S. Rodgers, Herman Baumbach, David Robison, Jr., Col. J. C. Bonner, Col. L. F. Lytle, Joel Kelsey, Howard Smith, J. M. Gloyd, Walter Brown, Alderman Tim Leroux, E. Bateman, Major E. O. Brown, O. B. Snider, Gen. C. C. Doolittle, Rathbun Fuller, Richard Waite, I. N. Huntsberger, A. L. Smith, and others of like standing in the community.

Did Mr. Heller appear according to his promise?

Not any, but he attempted to crawl out of his unenviable position by saying he never promised to meet the gentlemen.

The question of the veracity of David Robison and N. H. Swayne as against O. P. Heller is thus raised. There will not be much difficulty in determining the reliability of statements.

The desire of Heller to secure a knowledge of the wishes of his constituents will, therefore, naturally be put down as in the nature of a hollow mockery.

Reasons for the change of Heller from Sherman to Foraker must be looked for elsewhere, and there are those who can furnish the information, but probably will not.

Heller staked his reputation on the wind-jammers, who promised much but can deliver little, and he and not they will be compelled to bear the brunt of the perfidy.

This is a republican row in which the Bee has no interest, but as the people must have all legitimate news, this is the mission of the Buzzer, and the straight story is told above.

DISABLED AT SEA.

THAT CARTAGE QUESTION.

The Lake Shore Files an Answer to the Petition.

The First in the Case, and It is Clearly Evident That the Roads Want to Avoid Free Cartage.

It will be remembered that not long since the citizens' board of trade, by Thomas & Hiett, attorneys, filed a complaint before the interstate commerce commission against several railroads, alleging violation of the act to regulate commerce, by said roads furnishing free cartage at Detroit and other places, while consigners and shippers in Toledo are compelled to deliver and receive goods at the freight depots. A good many merchants expressed doubts as to whether such practices existed, and correspondence with Detroit merchants did not secure much light. Messrs. Thomas & Hiett, however, had been somewhat diligent in securing the facts and the answers of the Lake Shore and Michigan Central railroads, which have just been received, show that they were correct in what they claimed to be the facts.

Mr. Thomas stated to a Bee reporter to-day that the Lake Shore and Michigan Central railroads had been very fair and frank in their answers, and substantially admitted all the facts alleged in the petition, but justified their practices in receiving and delivering goods at the places of business of shippers and consignees, by the fact that they were forced to do it, by the competition of the Grand Trunk railway, and submit to the commission that they will be glad to discontinue the practice if the Grand Trung is compelled to do the same thing. At several late meetings of the Central Traffic association the proposition was made to the Grand Trunk to discontinue free cartage, but thus far that company has refused even to entertain the proposition. It would seem hardly possible to justify a violation of the act to regulate commerce, which distinctly forbids any such preferences, by the fact that competition compels it. In a recent case decided by the commission in December, it was held that where a railroad company terminating in East St. Louis carted Goods from St. Louis across the river free, while the Milling company in East St. Louis had to deliver its flour at the freight depot, that as long as the railroad company continued the free cartage, the complanants in East St. Louis were entitled to a rebate from their regular freight, equal to the cost of such cartage. Upon the same principle furnished at Detroit and not at Toledo it is hard to see how free cartage can be furnished at Detroit and not at Toledo unless a rebate is made to Toledo merchants, equal to the cost of the cartage, the rates for freight from eastern points to both cities being the same.

GRAND JURY REPORT.

Nine Indictments Returned, Jerry Coakley Among Them.

The grand jury reported this morning. Fourteen cases were investigated and nine indictments returned, the following of which were given to the public:

Jerry Coakley—Murder in the second degree.

Charles Smith—Burglary and larceny, two indictments.

Claude Gregory, alias St. Clair—Cutting with intent to kill.

Michael Flynn—Pocket picking.

Charles Johnson—Forgery.

Michael Malone—Pocket picking.

No indictments were returned against John Cowan, John Gentner and Ellen Gentner, and they were released by the sheriff at noon to-day.

The jury will meet again February 15.

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES.

Excellent Program at the Catholic Club—Political Equality Club.

Mr. John Bartell presided over the meeting of the Catholic club last evening, in the absence of President McDonnell. Solos were rendered by Mrs. Bartell, Miss Conlisk and Miss O'Brien, and Prof. Poulin and Mrs. Bartell favored the club with a duett. Miss Porter, of Mount Vernon, executed a difficult number on the violin with fine effect, and also gave a number on the piano.

The paper of the evening was read by Mr. John J. Murphy, his subject "The Way to Do It," treating of the influence of environment, in the church, the home and the school, and the importance of careful choice in these factors in the enlightenment of the young.

Constitutions and membership cards were distributed, and a number of new members received. This young club is in very flourishing condition.

Mrs. Judge Bentley, of 435 Superior street, entertains the Political Equality club to-morrow afternoon. A very interesting session is promised, and members and visitors will highly enjoy the parliamentary drill on "Dependent Motions." All interested in the question of school suffrage, and in the advancement of women are cordially invited to be present.

GEORGE H. KETCHAM

Appointed an Armory Trustee to Succeed Col. Smead.

Mr. George H. Ketcham has been appointed by Governor Campbell as a member of the board of Armory trustees, to succeed the president of the board, Col. Isaac D. Smead.

Col. Smead forwarded his resignation to the governor on the 5th inst, for the reason that he wished to enter the list of those making proposals for heating the fine building under process of erection by the board. Governor Campbell accepted the resignation and immediately appointed Geo. H. Ketcham to fill the vacancy.

The appointment will meet with the hearty approval of the militia, as well as of citizens in general.

IMPOSSIBLE

BEFORE THE INNOVATION MADE BY DR. COPELAND AND HIS ASSOCIATES

For People in Ordinary Circumstances to Obtain the Aid of Skillful Specialists--- The Evidence of the Skill of Dr. Copeland and Associates by No Means Confined to Toledo---Notable Statements From Notable People Out of Town.

Until the innovation made by Dr. Copeland and associates in placing medical skill and thorough and scientific treatment for all diseases within the reach of all by a system of low and uniform prices, it was almost impossible for people in moderate circumstances to obtain the aid of skillful and conscientious specialists. The fact that in spite of their well-established and fairly earned reputation for honest work, skillful treatment and successful results, they still maintain their low and uniform charges, shows that they aim not alone at financial success as practitioners, but as well at the accomplishment of the greatest possible amount of good in the community.

We have heard in the past, and still hear for that matter, many complaints over the exhorbitant fees charged by persons claiming to be specialists in throat and lung troubles. It is not only true that Dr. Copeland and his associates charge the low and uniform fee of but that a cure under their system of treatment is more certain and more rapidly obtained than under any other known method, and what is better still, their results are permanent, as shown by continual reference to cases printed years ago and reaffirmed by the patients speaking to-day.

$5.00 a Month for Medicines and Treatment,

Skill and success in the practice of medicine and surgery can no longer be estimated by the size of the fees, when specialists having the largest practice and the highest and best reputation for honest, skillful and successful work, place their fees so low as to be within the reach of all classes and conditions of people.

Under such conditions it is plainly the skillful and faithful work of these specialists in the first place that causes their pronounced prosperity and success. Others may in some measure try to follow their lines of work, but the Superior education, training and experience which has given them their acknowledged mastery over the diseases in their specialties, and makes it possible for them to carry on their practice permanently and successfully at such rates.

You cannot advertise a man into a specialist. Training, complete experience and skill must come first; and then your advertising will have the merit of genuineness and truthfulness, and will succeed. This is the secret of the whole matter. This is the secret of the failure of so many.

They are advertisers first; specialists afterward. The order must be reversed; specialists first, qualified by a regular medical education, and by special study, training and experience, then advertisers. There is no other way to secure permanence, public confidence and success, and those who try any other way will fail. Poorly or partially trained men may, by specious, untruthful advertising or representations, and by charging large fees for a short time deceive the public and make money, but it is only a question of time when the offense is discovered, and universal contempt is their reward. Genuine skill, genuine experience, permanent location, skillful and successful treatment, low and uniform fees; this to-day is the only pathway by which the specialist may obtain success and public confidence.

The evidence of the superior skill of Dr. Copeland and his associates, and of the remarkable and successful results which their system of treatment brings, is not, by any means, confined to this city; it comes from all parts of the country. Never in the history of advertising has there been such an array of testimony. The evidence is not from obscure or unknown sources. It comes from people, many of whom are not only well known in their own cities, but throughout the country, from clergymen, lawyers, professional men of every class, from business men of national reputation; from artists, and even from physicians, the most skeptical and one would think the least willing to lend their testimony. The following short statements represent some of the evidence of the class above referred to. These statements, in their original publication, are, in every case, accompanied by the portrait of the person speaking, or by a fac simile of their signature:

HON. R. W. DUNN, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF FRANKLIN, PA., writes: "My father died from catarrhal complications. I had been coughing, aching and been converted into a catarrhal nuisance for 10 or 15 years, but was not prepared to learn, till I began treatment with you, that I had catarrh with the grip of a vise, chronic in form, and had attained to the dignity of incipient consumption. I now see what was meant by the night sweats, pain over the eyes, dizzy headaches and restless, unfeeling nights, a cough which for the past year or more has played havoc with my dreams at night and my professional duties in the day. I got so thin that they talked of using me for a skeleton at initiations. I began treatment with you, and I just cannot draw a comparison between how I am now and what I was when I began. I sleep well, cannot get enough to eat, feel years younger, and pursue my professional duties with pleasure. I owe it to you. I do not know what other physicians can do, but I do know that I can recommend you in the treatment of seriously chronic catarrh."

JAMES J. RAFTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, 119 NORTH THIRD ST., EAST ST. LOUIS, writes: "For the past three years I have suffered from a catarrhal trouble which the best doctors and a trip to the Springs failed utterly to relieve. Under treatment with Dr. Copeland and associates I improved rapidly, not only as to my catarrhal trouble, but also in general health. As courteous gentlemen and skillful physicians I can heartily recommend them."

REV. J. W. ASHWOOD, PASTOR GRAND AVE. U. P. CHURCH, 3634 FOREST PARK BOULEVARD, ST. LOUIS, MO., writes: "While suffering from a severe throat trouble caused by exposure and aggravated by public speaking I made application to Dr. Copeland and associates for treatment, and I take pleasure in letting others know that I am now able to do all my regular work without difficulty or annoyance."

REV. M. CLARK, 3060 DREXEL BOULEVARD, CHICAGO, ILL., writes: "I have been treated by Dr. Copeland and associates, and desire to say that they have afforded me more substantial relief in a few weeks than I have received from other doctors in years; and I have had the best. I am glad to recommend them to my friends."

SAMUEL STEIN, 127 FRANKLIN ST., ROCHESTER, N. Y., President of the National Casket Manufacturing Company, under whose personal direction the caskets for the late presidents, Grant and Garfield, were made, writes: "I have had a throat trouble for many years, caused by catarrh of the nose and throat. Everything I had tried failed to give any permanent relief. Since using the treatment of Dr. Copeland and associates my condition has improved, and I am well satisfied with the result. I believe these gentlemen to be competent, reliable and skillful specialists, and commend them to the favorable consideration of the public."

F. ERNEST CRAMER, OF THE CRAMER DRY PLATE COMPANY, ST. LOUIS, writes to Dr. Copeland and associates: "My object in writing these lines is to express my gratitude and complete satisfaction at the successful and intelligent manner in which you are treating my catarrhal trouble. You are perfectly welcome to any use you may desire to make of this letter, and I only hope it may be of some benefit to you and the public."

ALFRED LEE, TREASURER A. F. SHAPLEIGH HARDWARE COMPANY, 519 N. MAIN ST., ST. LOUIS, MO., writes: "I am under treatment with Dr. Copeland and associates, and am satisfied with the intelligent manner in which they handle my case."

REV. J. W. MITCHELL, PASTOR TAYLOR ST. M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH NEWPORT, KY., writes: "I have been treated by Dr. Copeland and associates for catarrh, and, without solicitation from them or anyone else, I desire to say that they have afforded me more substantial relief in two months than I have received from any other physicians in twenty years. I most cordially and fully indorse and recommend them to my friends as pre-eminent in the treatment of catarrh."

REV. T. W. WILLIAMSON, PASTOR M. E. CHURCH, MT. ORAB, OHIO, writes: "I have been troubled with catarrh for many years. I had given up all hopes of ever being restored to health; but after seeing Rev. Dr. Mitchell's statement, with others that I knew to be reliable, concerning the wonderful cures effected by Dr. Copeland and associates, I concluded to try once more, and after less than one month's treatment I found that I was so greatly relieved that I felt altogether like a different person. And it is due Dr. Copeland and associates that I should say to the public that I believe they are all they claim to be in the treatment of catarrh."

REV. G. M. HODGEMAN, 29 ROWLEY ST., ROCHESTER, N. Y., writes: "Having tried the treatment of Dr. Copeland and associates for catarrhal throat trouble, and received benefit therefrom, I take pleasure in adding my testimony to the value of their methods in treating catarrhal troubles. As skillful, reliable and courteous gentlemen, I can heartily recommend them to my friends and to the favorable consideration of the public."

DR. C. C. BRADBURY, 1208 WASHINGTON AVE., ST. LOUIS, MO., writes: "When I first took the treatment of Dr. Copeland and associates my appetite was so poor I could not eat enough to keep my strength up. My nights were sleepless. Under their treatment I gained seven pounds in four weeks. I eat well and sleep soundly now. I most cordially and fully indorse and recommend them to my friends as skillful and successful physicians."

MISS MARIE DRESSLER, COMMEDIENNE OF THE BAKER OPERA COMPANY, NOW ON THE NEW ENGLAND CIRCUIT, writes: "I had catarrh which had affected my general health. I had tried a number of physicians and many remedies without any help until I tried Dr. Copeland and associates' treatment. The catarrh is entirely gone now, and I am as well as ever I was. I think people who are dependent upon the use of their voice and who suffer from throat troubles should know where they can get cured. That is why I make this statement."

MISS C. A. SAFFIN, 282 WEST NINTH ST., CINCINNATI, a daughter of the late Judge Saffin, and sister to the present judge of the probate court, of Columbus, Ohio, after suffering for twelve years from catarrh, says: "I tried many remedies and physicians but failed to derive any benefit from them. Under Dr. Copeland and associates' treatment I have steadily improved. I now go out and could in the summer when under their treatment. My nervousness has passed away, the severe headaches have ceased. I am troubled no more with catarrh, and feel a relief from pain that I have not known before for years. I can conscientiously recommend these doctors. They have done for me what other physicians failed to do."

SUPERINTENDENT HOWE, OF THE NEWPORT FERRY COMPANY, NEWPORT, KY., writes: "The symptoms of my catarrhal trouble are gone. I am all right now. I am very grateful to Dr. Copeland and associates."

Their Credentials.

As has been said, Dr. W. H. Copeland is a graduate of Bellevue Hospital Medical College, of the City of New York, was president of his class in that famous institution and after thorough hospital training and experience devoted his time and attention to the special lines of practice noted below. Years of experience in their special lines, preceded by extensive hospital work, has fitted Dr. Copeland and his associates in a notable degree for the practice of their profession.

Dr. Copeland and associates are permanently located in this city. Their lease and contracts are for a term of years.

DOCTORS FRANCE AND OTTMAN,

Formerly of New York, now the Celebrated Examining Physician of the France Medical and Surgical Institute, Columbus, Ohio, by request of many friends and patients has decided to visit Toledo,

Dr. France will visit Toledo, Wednesday, Jan. 20.
Dr. France will visit Toledo, Saturday, Jan. 30.

Consultation and Examination Free and Strictly Confidential in the Private Parlor of the Burnett House from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m., one day only.

The Doctors describe the different diseases better than the sick can themselves. It is a wonderful gift for any one to possess. Their diagnostic powers have created wonders throughout the country.

The France Medical and Surgical Institute of Columbus, Ohio, is the only Medical Institute in the State Incorporated with a Capital of $300,000.00.

FRANCE MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE,

38 & 40 W. Gay St., one block N. of State House, Columbus, O. Incorporated, 1886. Capital, $300,000.

DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, of New York, the well known and successful Specialists in Chronic Diseases and Diseases of the Eye and Ear, on account of their large practice in Ohio, have established the FRANCE MEDICAL INSTITUTE, where all forms of Chronic, Nervous and Private Diseases will be successfully treated on the most Scientific principles. They are ably assisted by a full corps of eminent Physicians and Surgeons, each one being a well known specialist in his profession

CANCER positively cured without pain or use of the knife, by a new method.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.—DR. FRANCE, after years of experience, has discovered the greatest cure known for all diseases peculiar to the sex. Female diseases positively cured by the new remedy, OLIVE BLOSSOM. The cure is effected by home treatment. Entirely harmless and easily applied. Consultation Free and Strictly Confidential. Correspondence promptly answered.

YOUNG MEN—Who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit, which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of exalted talent and brilliant intellect, may call with confidence.

DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, after years of experience, have discovered the greatest cure known for weakness in the back and limbs, involuntary discharges, impotency, general debility, nervousness, fear, or confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, timidity, trembling, dimness of sight, or giddiness, diseases of the head, throat, nose, or skin, affections of the liver, lungs, stomach, or bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the solitary vice of youth—and secret practices, blighting their most radiant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage impossible. Take one candid thought before it is too late. A week or month may place your case beyond the reach of hope. Our method of treatment will speedily and permanently cure the most obstinate case, and absolutely restore perfect manhood.

TO MIDDLE-AGED MEN.—There are many from the age of 30 to 60 who are troubled with frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight burning or smarting sensation, weakening the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examination of the urinary deposits, a ropy sediment will be found, or the color will be a thin or milkish hue. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is a second stage of seminal weakness. We will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.—We have a special department, thoroughly organized, and devoted exclusively to the treatment of diseases of women. Every case consulting our specialists, whether by letter or in person, is given the most careful and considerate attention. Important cases and we get few which have not baffled the skill of all the home physicians have the benefit of a full council of skilled specialists. In treatment of diseases peculiar to females, our success has been marked, over two-thirds of our patients being ladies, old, young, married, single, rich and poor. Our method is entirely free from objectionable features of the general practitioner, namely, "Local treatment." We seldom find it necessary. We prepare remedies, constitutional and local, as the case demands, and instruct ladies how to treat themselves.

MARRIAGE.—Married persons, or young men contemplating marriage, aware of physical weakness, loss of procreative powers, impotency, or any other disqualification, speedily restored.

PRIVATE DISEASES.—Blood Poison, Venereal Taint, Gleet, Stricture, Seminal Emissions, Loss of Sexual Power, Weakness of Sexual Organs, Want of Desire in Male or Female, whether from imprudent habits of youth or sexual habits of mature years, or any cause that debilitates the sexual functions, speedily and permanently cured. Consultation free and strictly confidential. Absolute cures guaranteed. Medicines sent free from observation to all parts of the United States.

EPILEPSY, OR FITS—Positively cured by a new and never-failing method. Testimonials furnished.

FREE EXAMINATION OF THE URINE.—Each person applying for medical treatment should send or bring from 2 to 4 ounces of urine (that passed first in the morning preferred), which will receive a careful chemical and microscopical examination, and if requested a written analysis will be given.

Persons ruined in health by unlearned pretenders, who keep trifling with them month after month, giving poisonous and injurious compounds, should apply immediately. Delays are dangerous.

WONDERFUL CURES Perfected in old cases which have been neglected or unskillfully treated. No experiments or failures. Parties treated by mail or express, but where possible, personal consultation is preferred. Curable cases guaranteed. No risks incurred.

Cases and correspondence confidential. Treatment sent C. O. D. to any part of U. S. List of 130 questions free. Address, with postage, DR. FRANCE. Nos. 38 and 40 W. Gay St., Columbus, O.

ABOUT RAILROADS.

Information Concerning the Great Highways.

The Pennsylvania's Form of Ticket Popular.

Various Roads Hold Annual Meetings—Sketch of a Popular Railroad Man—Earnings and Statements—General News.

The new form of tickets placed on sale by the Pennsylvania road is another of the many plans adopted to handicap the wily scalper. The ticket is all right for people who are used to travel and know just where they are going and when they are going to start. The ticket is made out for a certain train, and expires after a certain time, and is not good on any other train or after the limit has run out. The limited tickets are sold at a slight reduction by way of inducement. If the return coupon expires before the owner is ready to use it, the value of it is refunded by presenting the same to the proper authority.

President Calloway Talks.

President Calloway returned from St. Louis yesterday, and in reply to an inquiry of a Bee in regard to the announcement that the Clover Leaf had withdrawn from the Central Traffic association, made the following statement: "The Toledo, St. Louis & Kansas City railroad has never been a member of the Central traffic association further than paying a portion of the expense and agreeing to abide by the tariffs and rates made in joint conference. Some months ago at the request of the association the Toledo, St. Louis & Kansas City railroad company agreed to accept differential rates in lieu of commissioners. It was considered by all its competitors, that, as a new line, it would not get a fair share of the business without a differential rates, but when the awards were made they were allowed them only via the Nickel Plate and other lines that had practically no through train service and being unsatisfactory to this company it gave the requisite notice of withdrawal from the agreement.

The C., J. & M. Sale.

The terminal division of the Cincinnati, Jackson & Mackinaw will be sold this afternoon, by special master sale in the United States court.

Attorney James F. Price, of Lima, is in the city representing F. M. Shaffer, in whose favor a verdict was entered in against the C., J. & M. company in the common pleas court of Van Wert county, in October, 1888, in the sum of $7,000 as damages for personal inury.

A Popular Conductor.

The St. Louis Republic in its portrait sketches of prominent railroad men, had the following of Edward Severance, a well-known resident of this city and universally popular railroad man:

"Passenger Conductor Edward Severance, of the Wabash railroad, has been in the employment of the company for 31 years, 14 years of which have been spent as conductor of a passenger train. Mr. Severance was born at Greenfield, Mass., in 1837. He entered railroad service as a laborer for the Wabash railroad company in the freight house at Toledo in 1856, and served in that capacity until 1858, when he became brakeman on a freight train. In 1860 he was made brakeman on a passenger train, and in 1861 he resigned to enter the army. In 1866 he returned and was passenger brakeman and baggageman for three years, or until 1869, when he was promoted to the position of freight conductor, and served in that capacity for nine years, or until 1878. In March, 1878, he was appointed passenger conductor, the position which he still holds.

Ed. Severance.

General Change.

A circular has been issued announcing that the ... department of the Rio Grade & Western road has been divided into the general freight, general passenger and ticket departments, and the existing combination discontinued.

S. H. Babcock has been appointed general freight, passenger and ticket agent, to have charge of the freight department.

J. H. Bennet, formerly in charge of the freight department, will continue in service as general passenger and ticket agent in charge of the passenger department.

Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Columbus & Xenia railroad company was held at Columbus yesterday, with 20,386 shares represented. The following directors were elected for the ensuing year: P. W. Huntington, John W. Andrews, George M. Parsons, R. A. Harrison, Alfred Thomas, Robert S. Smith, W. B. Hayden, James A. Swan, Rutherford H. Platt, B. F. Martin, Columbus; Henry Hanna, Cincinnati; Thomas D. Messler, Pittsburg. The board organized by selecting P. W. Huntington president, and Robert S. Smith, treasurer.

Whipped by the Porter and Wants Damages.

Suit has been brought in the common pleas court at Kansas City, by Herman A. White, against the Pullman Palace company, to recover $10,000 for personal injury.

It appears that Mr. White went to New Orleans in 1889 to see the Sullivan-Kilrain fight, and got a chance to see another before he got back to Kansas City. He was thoroughly mauled by a sleeping-car porter.

The porter passed through the car carrying a basin of water. Some of the water fell upon White and he requested the porter to be more careful in the future. Nothing more was thought of the matter, and White retired. He had no more than got to sleep when awoke to find that he was being severely mauled by the porter. It required three men to get the infuriated man away.

Elected Directors.

The stockholders of the Cleveland & Pittsburg road met in Cleveland and elected directors as follows: Charles Lanier, W. C. Eggleston and J. S. Kennedy, of New York; George B. Roberts, of Philadelphia; H. Darlington, of Pittsburg; J. T. Brooks, of Sales, O.; J. V. Payneer, E. R. Perkins, R. F. Smith, M. A. Hanna, and H. C. Ranney, of Cleveland, and E. A. Ferguson, of Cincinnati.

A Splendid Showing.

The estimated earnings of the Columbus, Hocking Valley & Toledo railway for the month of December, 1891, is $285,752.84, corresponding month in 1890, $244,667.63; increase $41,075.63. The increase is about 17 per cent.

A Freight Meeting.

A meeting of freight officials was held in St. Louis yesterday for the purpose of considering east-bound freight matters. President Callaway of the Clover Leaf, General Manager Hays of the Wabash, General Manager Williams of the Vandalia, General Freight Agent Weed of the Clover Leaf and General Freight Agent Duncan of the Ohio & Mississippi were present. No important action was taken.

Cinders Here and There.

Mr. M. S. Conners, superintendent of the River division of the C., H. V. & T. railroad, with his family, has settled in Columbus.

The Chicago division of the Big Four handled during 1891 325,923 loaded cars on the division, against 306,882 during the year 1890.

General Passenger Agent Holwill of the Delaware, Lackawana & Western has issued a circular announcing that the traffic relations with the Chicago & Alton would be resumed.

The Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern road for the year 1891 earned $2,504,646 gross, which is the largest year's earnings in its history. The increase over the gross earnings for the year 1890 was $175,201.

The Wabash has completed arrangements whereby passengers ticketed to Hot Springs may purchase sleeping car tickets through from Toledo, and retain the same location selected until their journey's end.

J. J. Fletcher, general freight agent of the Big Four, with headquarters at St. Louis, has resigned to accept a position with a southern road. It is stated that W. D. Holliday, general agent at Sandusky, will be appointed to fill the vacancy.

E. L. Kenney, chief train dispatcher of the Cleveland division of the Big Four, has been appointed trainmaster of that division, and J. L. Withdrow, chief dispatcher of the Cincinnati division, has been made trainmaster of that division. He is succeeded as chief dispatcher by O. B. Hall.

The Omaha & Republican Valley and the Omaha & Elkhorn Valley railroads, now part of the Union Pacific system, held their annual election at Omaha, Neb., yesterday, and both chose the following directors: Jay Gould, Russell Sage, Sidney Dillon, and A. D. Orr, of New York; F. L. Ames, E. Atkin and F. Gordon Dexter of Boston.

"No baking powder is gaining public favor so rapidly as Cleveland's."

One reason is people like to know what they are eating, and the composition of Cleveland's baking powder is given on every label.

So many baking powders containing ammonia or alum are widely advertised as "absolutely pure," the best way is to refuse any brand the composition of which is concealed.

THIRTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING

Of Ex-Prisoners of War—Election of Officers and a Good Time Follows.

Last night Association hall of the Toledo Association of Union Ex-Prisoners of War was the scene of active business transactions in the interest of the survivors of that noble band of heroic sufferers who survived the horrors of imprisonment in southern prisons in the war of the rebellion. The meeting was called to order by President J. W. Stone. Following the routine of closing up the business of the past year, the selection of officers for the ensuing year was entered upon, resulting in the choosing of the following officers: Henry Weitzel, president; J. M. Chilcote, vice president; J. F. Holliger, secretary; J. W. King, treasurer; J. W. Greene, chaplain; Quade Haynes and John Shook, color bearers; J. W. Greene, F. O. Peck and Wm. Addelsperger, committee on entertainment.

The following delegates were selected to represent Toledo at the national encampment, to be held at Washington next September: S. S. Canfield, James L. Barret, John H. Hazelwood, L. W. McCrory, Archie Van Hauten, Robert Householder and J. W. King, delegates; John W. Stone, J. F. Holliger, James H. Spain, Fred O. Peck, R. F. Wilson, James M. Chilcote and C. Hayne, alternates.

Gen. J. W. Greene was indorsed for president of the national encampment, and a better selection could not be made.

The newly elected officers were duly installed and entered upon the duties of their respective offices with a spirit and earnestness indicative of a purpose to greatly enhance the usefulness of the organzation for the incoming year. After an all-round clasping of hands of comrades who had faced death in its most terrible form, the thirteenth annual business meeting of the Toledo Association of Union Ex-Prisoners of War was brought to a close.

The newly elected president, Comrade Henry Weitzel, invited the association to the dining parlors of the Grand Central restaurant, No. 503 Monroe street, to meet with some of their friends, not members of the association, and partake of the good cheer of the house. The invitation being accepted, the command was soon seated at as elegant a spread as could be set in Toledo, superintended by that artistic chef de cusine, Patrick M. Haley.

Among the invited guests were several members of the city council, Mr. John Shaw, the brass founder, James Wright, the East Side gardener, and several others. Mr. Wright was captured by the "boys" and made a willing prisoner on account of his capability as a forager, he having furnished the table with one dozen bunches of the most crisp celery to be had in the United States, the product of his famous garden, for which compliment he was honored with a seat at the head of the table.

The discussion of the viands and edibles of the feast was interspersed with short speeches, reminiscences and experiences of nearly every one present. Visiting comrades from New York, Ohio and Michigan graced the festal board. The convocation wound up at midnight with thanks to President Weitzel for his bounty, and Major Domo Haley and his assistants, Wm. and Charles Zimmerman, Robbie Weitzel and Gussie Wendt for their alert and polite attention to the spirit and corporeal wants of the guests. A supplementary "leap year" compliment was paid to Miss Katherine Kellerman, the skilful and accomplished cook of the Grand Central, for her excellent cooking and baking.

SCOTTISH RITE MASONS.

The Regular Winter Reunion To Be Held This Month.

The twenty-first reunion of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite Masons, of the Valley of Toledo, will occur at the Masonic temple, this city, Wednesday and Thursday, January 27 and 28. Neat programs have been issued showing that the grades will be conferred on a large class. The exercises will be as follows:

Wednesday morning, the fourth grade, Barton Smith presiding and the fifth grade, Joseph Asbury Stipp presiding.

Wednesday afternoon, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, Lafayette Lyttle presiding; ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades, Clarence E. Armstrong presiding; thirteenth grade, Charles T. Lewis presiding.

Wednesday evening, fourteenth grade, Barton Smith presiding.

Thursday morning, fifteenth grade, Lafayette Lyttle presiding.

Thursday afternoon, sixteenth grade, Joseph M. Spencer presiding; seventeenth grade, Lafeyette Lyttle presiding.

Thursday evening, eighteenth grade, Lafeyette Lyttle presiding, followed by an elaborate banquet in which the ladies will also participate.

One page of the program is devoted to a memorial for James Dority, Charles A. Topliff, Barton Russel Tabor, Elton T. Martin and Isaac N. Reed, members who died during the year 1891.

The music for the reunion is to be furnished by a quartet consisting of Miss Bessie Doolittle, Mrs. F. R. Williams, Mr. W. A. Howell and Mr. F. R. Williams, with Mr. Theo. Ecker, accompanist.

MYSTERIOUS CASE

Of a Family of European Paupers

Who Arrived in Toledo Yesterday—A Rigid Investigation to be Made—Something Wrong.

Comment has been made over the country for some time regarding the affairs of the barge office at New York are conducted. On several occasions the Bee has mentioned the arrival in the city of paupers and other people who should never have been allowed to land. They do land, however, and make their way west, where some one is obliged to take care of them.

Another case of the kind was brought to light here this morning at the infirmary office, where the family applied for help. This family, consisting of the husband and father, John Keilhof, his wife and two small children, boy and girl, arrived in the city yesterday, spent last night at the police station and this morning applied at the infirmary office for help.

The man's story is a very peculiar one, and there is an air of mystery surrounding the troubles of this family that indicates something wrong somewhere.

The husband is a man about 35 years of age and stated that his family came from Straubing, Bavaria, from which place they went to Hamburg and sailed for America, arriving in New York about three weeks ago. When he went to Hamburg he only had about 120 marks in money, about $30, and for this his family obtained passage for New York and when he reached that city he had $4 less. The only papers he had with him when he left home was a passport from the mayor of his town, such as is given to a person to go from one province to another. This paper, he said, was taken by the officer aboard ship.

When the family arrived at the barge office, New York, a woman appeared and stated to the officials that she was wealthy and intended to take care of Keilhof and his family. Upon the representations of this woman they were allowed to leave the barge office and go with her.

They stayed in New York about three weeks, Keilhof working at digging sewers while his wife performed the housework for the woman with whom they were staying. In this time Keilhof saved a little money and the New York woman gave him $2 more and sent them to Toledo, where they landed as above stated.

Keilhof did not know the name of the ship on which he came over, nor to what line it belonged, neither did he know the name of the woman who took him and his family out of the barge office, New York, and with whom he stayed three weeks.

Appearance would indicate that the man in his own country was either a pauper, a criminal, or is trying to escape military service, and it is very evident that he was assisted in reaching this country, probably by his home government, as the money he had would not pay his steerage passage.

Immigrant Inspector Ryan was notified of the case, and is investigating it, and he will call the attention of the department of immigration to the matter, but this will be done through the secretary of the treasury, and Mr. Ryan will make an effort to have the matter investigated at New York.

"There is evidently a regular system of getting such people into the country," said Inspector Ryan, "and that New York woman was part of the plan. Nevertheless these people should have been sent back unless the New York woman had given some bond that they would not become a public charge."

Both Mr. Ryan and Superintendent Kirkby expressed it as their opinion that some of the New York immigration officials are in collusion with the people interested in dumping these paupers into this country, and for that reason it is so easy for such large numbers to get through the barge office.

The infirmary officials sent the family on to Adrian, Mich.

THE NOTEMAN-FISK BURNER.

The weather for the past few days has given the company manufacturing the Noteman-Fisk Natural Gas Burner a splendid opportunity to test its heating powers, and the results are more than satisfactory to all concerned. Yesterday one was placed in a stove in the law office of Thomas & Hiett where they were freezing and they were soon made comfortable. Lamson Bros. are more than enthusiastic over the increase of heat in their furnace. At Foster's green houe the temperature was changed from 45 to 63 degrees in a short time and Mr. Foster is satisfied that his plants were saved by it. Mr. J. B. Freeman and more than 20 others whose names might be mentioned, are using this wonderful invention with entire satisfaction. The temperature in Mr. Freeman's house was raised 20 degrees in a few minutes. The burner is on exhibition at 311 Superior street over Woolley's Music Store.

THE NOTEMAN-FISK BURNER.

The demand for the Noteman-Fisk burner is steadily increasing. The little burner is simple in construction, but thoroughly practicable. A large number have been put in use and with the best satisfaction, the temperature beng immediately increased. A force of men have been put at work in various parts of the city placing the burners and delight is manifested wherever they are used.

ALL THE POINTS.

POLICE BOARD.

The board of police commissioners will meet to-night in special session to take up the charges against Chief O'Dwyer. The witnesses on both sides have been subpoenaed and it is expected that the meeting will be an exciting one.

DEATH OF DR. COLDHAM.

Dr. James Coldham died yesterday afternoon, after suffering from a stroke of paralysis on Tuesday. As already stated in the Bee, the doctor was well and favorably known in Toledo, and the news of his demise will be received with regret. The family will have the sympathy of their numerous friends in the sudden bereavement which has come upon them. The funeral services will be held to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at Trinity church.

LINEMEN'S UNION.

There was a special meeting of the Linemen's union at Mulcahy's hall last night, and it was intended that election of officers should be part of the business transacted. This was, however, postponed until the regular meeting next Thursday night, when the charter for the union from the International Brotherhood of Linemen will have been received. There are a number of members of this union sick and "in hard luck," and committees were appointed to investigate and see what assistance could be given them. No other work of importance was transacted.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

A "Danger Signal" is to be sprung at the Peoples' next week.

Skating on the river is at high tide, though the ice is not regarded as very solid.

Waterville masonic officers will be installed to-night by Col. L. F. Lyttle, of this city.

A small shed belonging to Mrs. Cahoo, 187 Lafayette street, was burned at noon to-day. Damage about $20.

Maumee tent of the Maccabees met last night for the first time at Myer's hall. Officers for the ensuing term were installed.

Men and boys of Trinity church choir are requested to meet at the parish building to-morrow at 2:30 o'clock for the funeral service of Dr. Coldham.

Minutes of the last session of the grand lodge of Masons, held at Columbus, have been printed and are being distributed to those entitled to them.

Frank Chalot, arrested for practicing a flim-flam game some time ago, was tried in police court this morning on a charge of petit larceny. Judge Sala reserved his decision.

There will be services at the Monroe Street M. E. church and at the Fifth Presbyterian church Sunday evening for the purpose of forming a ladies' auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A. of Auburndale.

Building permits have been issued to E. W. Eastell for an $1,800 frame dwelling on Woodruff avenue, and to Dildine and Back for a $700 frame on Hicks street.

The Colorado Springs Gazette issued a special holiday edition that is a beauty. The illustrations, which are especially fine, were made by Mr. C. W. Dawson, a son of Mr. C. C. Dawson, the insurance agent of this city.

The public installation of officers of the Ladies' auxiliary of the Sons of Veterans took place Tuesday evening at G. A. R. hall, after which a fine supper was served and dancing indulged in until a late hour. During the evening Mr. Geo. Mills favored the audience with several fine recitations. Little Ladd Morse also spoke several selections. Esther Mae Mullen sang, and Miss Allie Rood gave a piano solo.

A man by the name of John Myers was struck and knocked down by an electric car last evening about 6 o'clock, cutting a gash in his head which is painful but not serious. Mr. Myers attempted to hurry across the walk in front of the approaching car, and although the motorman put on the brakes and tried to stop his car, it was impossible to do so within so short a distance.

The series of interviews with the different music dealers in Toledo, which appeared in the annual Bee, were copied into the Musical Courier, a trade paper taken among the musical people, and duly credited.

BEHIND THE TIMES.

Hartford, Conn., Jan. 8.—In the house to-day a motion to suspend rules and pass the $50,000 appropriation for Connecticutt's exhibit at the world's fair was lost.

TOLEDO, OHIO, JANUARY 8, 1892.

The story of Heller's flop is printed in the Bee to-day. It is rich reading and places Mr. Griffin's Echo in a very small and a very unenviable position.

The roll call is in alphabetical order—Flickinger, Griffin and Heller. Flick will vote all right, Griffin will see about it, and Heller will echo Griffin, just as Messer did.

Gov. Campbell's appointment of ex-Senator Geyser, of Swanton, as a trustee of the Toledo Asylum is satisfactory. He is an excellent business man and will make a good trustee.

If Griffin should leave his overcoat at his hotel some day Heller would be lost on roll call, unless he should crawl out of the pocket and go to the state house all by himself.

The Bowling Green Sentinel, stalwart republican, is especially severe upon the Blade since the nomination of Sherman. The brethren do not come together with David and Jonathan affection.

Mayor Emmick played fast and loose between Foraker and Sherman, but the Bee prints a dispatch to-day that shows the "Little Jumper" as an out-and-out Sherman man. Of course, Sherman was nominated.

Gov. Foraker made a pretty peace speech at the senatorial caucus but the words were not the sincere utterances of a loyal party man. His severe attack upon President Harrison, Senator Sherman, Secretary Foster and others was of too recent occurrence to make his speech of defeat heartfelt.

Col. Isaac D. Smead having resigned as a member of the Toledo Armory board Gov. Campbell has appointed Mr. George H. Ketcham to fill the vacancy. This, without Mr. Ketcham's knowledge. The appointment is a graceful compliment to one of Toledo's foremost young business men. Mr. Ketcham and the Governor are both to be congratulated.

The death of Dr. Coldham removes a great landmark from Toledo. A practitioner in this place nearly fifty years his life was closely identified with the growth and development of the city. A learned man in his profession, a practical man in all things. Dr. Coldham's name and fame are high on the roll in this community. His death is a personal loss to hundreds of families and is greatly deplored by everybody.

Minister Terrill, United States envoy to Belgium, has arrived home from that country, and reports that the art exhibit the Belgians will make at the Chicago fair will outdo their display at the Paris exposition. One critic is in a stew lest too much space has been given indiscriminate art productions, and the countries of Europe presuming upon our ignorance in such matters, will unload what they consider slow marketable stuff on us. They have their reputation to look after, as we have ours, and the world's critics will be there. Guess the danger isn't great.

Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul is strong in his expressed conviction that no distinction should be made on color lines in the parochial schools. A church edict, if it shall take such form, is more effective in parochial schools than a state law in public schools. Ohio, like the majority of the northern states, has wiped the black laws from its statute book; it has also a compulsory education law, yet the number of colored children in the free schools is small indeed, compared with the number in the streets and alleys. We are very eloquent about the education of the freedmen in the south but the embryo colored citizen of the north appears to be an object of very little interest.

The headline editor of the Toledo Bee concerning the proposed gerrymander of the state, says that Congressman Outhwaite is to be legislated out of office. If history does not lie the ripper legislature legislated McKinley out of office, and the people voted him into a higher and more honorable office. Sometimes history repeats itself, but the democracy have no right to complain. By their infamous gerrymander they invited the punishment the present general assembly seems disposed to inflict.—Sandusky Register.

Don't be too harsh, neighbor. Don't call infamous what your own party has repeatedly done. The democratic bill was all right in parts and very bad in parts. In the McKinley matter the legislature made a fool of itself and the party. Legislating McKinley out of congress made him the republican candidate for governor.

The strain of official life must be great. The deaths of public men from causes apparent make a long roll-call. No sooner does a hitherto strong man take up the round of labor, excitement, watchfulness, wire-pulling and manipulation (any or all of these as he shall elect), than bulletins as to the state of his health are in order. Secretary Foster, with all his financial skill cannot cover up the treasury deficit and the work and worry, the result of which falls short of the expectations of his party, make a semi-invalid of him. Blaine's desperate ambition and industry in the face of physical decline has a touch of heroism in it. It has been proclaimed that there is neither wealth, health nor pleasure in high official government position, yet the scramble for the places and the death-grip with which incumbents cling to them is something startling. Is there mistake in the diagnosis of the case?

GOV. CAMPBELL'S MESSAGE.

In his remarkably short message to the Ohio legislature Gov. Campbell has given the country a striking exhibition of practical statesmanship. When the Ohio voters chose Maj. McKinley for governor and a republican legislature, they served notice on the present state administration that its policy was no longer acceptable. Instead of attempting to argue the question, Gov. Campbell has very gracefully accepted the verdict of the people and asks the new legislature to look to his distinguished successor for advice regarding the legislation of the future.—Washington Post.

First, Last and All the Time.

When the democrats of the house get together, and the next to fight republicanism the first thing they have to do is to stay togeher, and the next to fight republicanism as hard as can be.—St. Louis Republic.

Not a Sign of Discord.

McMillin's selection as speaker pro tem. is certainly not a sign of discord among the democrats at Washington. It was a wise choice from every point of view.—New York World.

MENTIONED ON THE STREETS.

That ice-men are rubbing their hands gleefully.

That now is a good time to build that toboggan slide.

That the government officials have returned to their desks.

That the cold wave gives evidence of staying with us for a spell.

That the death of Dr. Coldham leaves but few of the pioneers of old-time days among the medical profession.

That Gov. McKinley will oppose ripping by the state legislature.

That infirmary officials will rejoice when the winter and the grip is over.

That the man who "I told you so" was to be found everwhere yesterday.

That a skating rink would not be a bad investment for an energetic capitalist.

That a union revival is possible among the churches before the winter closes.

That Doc Smith is having his white pug dyed black for use at Columbus on Monday.

That the fire laddies are happy because the new year starts off so splendidly without fires.

That anti-election promises are regarded as below par among Lucas county republicans.

That there will be a collapse of the Sala-Emmick combination at the police board to-day.

That the republicans will be slow to embrace "the traitors" who turned tail on the senatorship.

That a supply of anti-Sherman cartoons can be had cheap at the newspaper office over on the corner.

That Lent is drawing on apace, and weddings will consequently be more numerous for a time.

That the billiard contests at the O. Y. C. rooms are becoming quite serious; there is no room for amateurs.

That the possibility of Reynold Voit's confirmation as gas trustee is not more flattering than two weeks ago.

That the bachelors' column was entirely too popular, and in answer to an urgent request their cases will rest.

That Sheriff Stuart's ardent love for Gov. Foraker cost him $10, and Mr. M. G. Bloch is so much ahead.

That the day has passed without the announcement that "the gallant Joseph B. Foraker" is a candidate for something.

That Bill Geyser was named for asylum trustee a few weeks sooner than he expected. Parks Foster had his eye on the vacancy.

That Judge Millard's manly stand in the Emmick-Sala boomerang has added very largely to his already great number of admirers.

That Lucas lodge arrangement committee for to-morrow evening's festivities at the castle have a surprise in store for those who attend.

That a heavy batch of bonds is to be disposed of on Monday evening, and the absorbing question is, will there be bids? It is hoped there will.

That the architect who designs the antics, in letter and form, in the show windows of Brown, Eager & Hull, has a great head and nimble fingers.

That street car conductors are making an honest endeavor to compel passengers to observe the rule, "Keep off the platform." Obedience to the request may save fatalities.

That the police matron's office promises to be the cause of considerable controversy before it reaches the expectations of those instrumental in having the position created.

That a good trade is being enjoyed by plug hat merchants from members of the Toledo Republican club, that headgear having been adopted to lend tone to the inauguration procession next Monday.

That candidates for the vacant constableship are hoping the councilmen will not occupy too much time with the gas trusteeship on Monday evening, so they may give would-be constables a little show.

That the man who suffers most by the recent senatorial fight among the republicans is O. P. Heller. His wabbling has lost him the respect of both sides, though the Foraker fellows will coddle him for awhile.

That many of the vacant lots in Maplewood, Englewood, Robinwood, Parkwood and the other fashionable woods in the Seventh and Eighth wards will be built upon early in the spring by lower town people.

That it would be a grand thing to have the four railroad passenger depots united into one grand union station. Such a consummation may not be reached, but that does not detract from the desirability of the scheme.

WAR ON SUNDAY NEWSPAPERS.

A Law of the Eighteenth Century Revived by Pittsburg Moralists.

Pittsburg, Jan. 8.—The war on Sunday newspapers, threatened by the Law and Order society for many months has been inaugurated. Information was made against 35 employes of the Sunday papers by Robert McClure, special agent of the society, charging them with engaging in worldly employment on Sunday.

The suits were entered before Alderman Rohe. Alderman Rohe refuses to give any information, but it is understood that the suits are against the clerks in the business office and the carriers. So far the reportorial and editorial forces have not been included, but it is stated that suits against all the employes will follow later. The informations are made under a law enacted 100 years ago.

BROOMS IN A CORNER.

Schenectady, N. Y., Jan. 8.—The Broom Manufacturers' association, comprising large manufacturers throughout the United States, had a meeting in Chicago Wednesday to further advance the price of brooms 20 cents per dozen, making an advance of 75 cents since November, when the organization was formed.

HEAVY FAILURE.

Baltimore, Jan. 8.—George H. C. Neal & Co., the senior member of which firm died a few days ago, this morning made an assignment with liabilities of about $150,000. The assets are not known. Neal & Co. have been one of the leading dry goods firms of this city for 40 years.

RUSSIAN LOAN.

Berlin, Jan. 8.—Russian stocks are depressed by the statement that the issue of a Russian loan of £20,000,000 is being arranged for.

The press denounces the scheme and declares that the present rapprochement is merely a ruse to advance the proposed loan.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Mrs. Eliza Wilson, of Ojata, N. D., had 100 acres of wheat this year and threshed 3,800 bushels.

Senator Hawley's wife was at one time a hospital nurse. She is of English parentage and is a very bright and talented woman.

J. B. Jones, Sr., of Elbert county, Georgia, says there is a gentleman now living over there whose name fully written is Robert Marcus Dorcas Benjamin Dixon Diana Fundunger Delaware George Washington Everdutton Bell.

Martin Briggs, colored, who died on Thursday at the age of 100, was purchased 75 years ago in South Carolina by Capt. George A. Winans, an uncle of the present governor of Michigan.

Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, the 14-year-old daughter of W. K. Vanderbilt, is an accomplished linguist, speaking with fluency German, French, Italian and English.

George Francis Train is patroling Broadway every afternoon in the most extensive fur coat ever seen east of Duluth. Some of the Thespians who frequent the rialto look upon it with longing eyes.

Mme. Bluet, Max O'Rell's wife, who has recently come before the public as a writer, is an Englishwoman and the daughter of a well-to-do shipowner of Devonshire. She is the translator of all of her husband's books.

Sir Harry Vernley has just celebrated his 90th birthday on his estate at Middle Claydon, Bucks, England, and opened the ball with sprightly vigor. Not long ago he challenged anybody over 70 years of age to run a race against him for 100 yards, and defeated the only opponent who presented himself.

A biographer relates that Nathaniel Hawthorne made a curious wager with Jonathan Cilley when both were at college in 1824. The memorandum in writing dated Bowdoin college, November 14, binds Cilley to pay Hawthorne a barrel of the best old Madeira wine if Hawthorne married before November 14, 1830. Hawthorne, who was a bashful youth, pledging himself in turn to pay Cilley the wine in case Hawthorne should still be a bachelor. Cilley lost, but was killed by Graves in a duel before he could pay the bet.

AN UNKNOWN TOLEDO POET.

It matters not that the reading and writing world is informed with periodical frequency, that there is no demand for poetry; that there is no money in it and that critics are sure to give it barbarous treatment. If there is song in the soul of man, woman or child, it will be flung upon the air, in spite of all discouragements. Indeed, the "divine afflatus" seems sometimes to thrive on adversity. Toledo has its poets of merit, acknowledged, and some who are unknown. A bundle of rhymes written in a boyish hand on odd scraps of paper, bill heads, or whatever was handy, came into possession of a Bee the other day, and the merit contained in the lines prompts public commendation and the quoting of some of them that readers may judge for themselves. The longest effort is entitled "Solus," and the pen and ink sketch made of the title shows a bit of the artist as well as poet:

If there's any one thing on this planet
Which makes a man love his own roost,
It's a night like this present—a wild one,
When the fiends of bad weather are loosed;
And how snug and how pensive it makes me
Just to hear how the rain drops are blown,
As I sit here, and read through the midnight
By the flickering firelight, alone.

'Tis a brass-cornered, worm-eaten volume,
Its pages all yellow and old;
"The Boke of the Kynge of Northgalis,"
That brave knight, so gentle and bold;
But there's something that's not in the story,
That comes 'twixt my eyes and the type;
—A host of dead faces, lost places,
I see through the smoke of my pipe.

Since you were a youngster, my fragrant,
And I was a youngster as well,
What years have been stricken to nothing
By the tongue of the time-telling bell!
We ourselves are not changed for the better,
You've grown blacker, and I'm getting gray;
And still we are chumming together,
In the same old affectionate way.

But since you are grown an old fogy,
And I am an old fogy too,
What's become of my friends, the young fellows?
Where's the girl I attempted to woo?
My friends to the four winds are scattered,
The girl—she's been married these years;
And I—if I hadn't outgrown it,
I could put out my pipe-light with tears.

Yes, the fellow that won her had merits,
Much greater than I ever had;
And as men, and pipes too, are but mortal,
It was natural we should feel sad;
But though she's forgotten me wholly,
I've a friend of a different stripe;
He may not be handsome—no matter!
There's nowhere another such pipe.

But the time's not far off, my consoler,
When your light and mine must go out;
So when Death, the Extinguisher, snuffs us,
We'll greet him full hearty and stout;
And we'll live without heed to his coming,
So let him approach when he may;
He'll find us still chumming together,
In the same old affectionate way!

It shows a clever imagination in the inexperienced youth to thus voice so correctly (no doubt) the reveries of the somewhat cynical bachelor, shut in by the storm with his old briar and his memories. And the rhyming is easy and nowhere imperfect. Some love stanzas conclude thus:

O heart of mine, long life to thee
Love on, nor ask for hows and whys,
The love that seeks its cause to see
Hath slain itself and shortly dies.
Not strange that love is blind and wise,
It cannot live with open eyes.

A thoughtful, musical inspiration is this from a summer evening reverie:

* * *

Here stand I in the leafy lane
Beside the pool, alone,
And breathe the smell of grass and grain
Upon the night wind blown,
Until I feel grow up in me
Unutterable sympathy
That cannot find a tone;
A sense of smallness, and a sense
Of man's false pride and impotence.

Is it the darkness or the calm,
The long sigh of the breeze,
That makes the forest speak a psalm
The hills their symphonies?
Or some strange influence from the whole
That finds an answer in the soul
To sadden yet to please?
That makes the brain, this shadowy eve,
Half sweet, half mournful fancies weave?

Too much we hear of careful lives,
Of strife for name and place,
Blest is that man in whom survives
An awe for Nature's face;
Far better let us ponder well
On things that deeper lessons tell
To this poor, groveling race;
And cast a humble eye abroad
On Nature, and on Nature's God!

It is never safe to predict from first indications what future developments may be, but it is safe to say there is poetic merit and much promise in the lines quoted. The author of them is Harry Brigham, a Toledo young man employed in a wholesale house on Summit street, and the Bee is glad to introduce him to the reading public, with advice to cultivate his undeniable gift.

GOVERNMENT AID.

Washington, Jan. 8.—In the senate today Mr. Peffer, of Kansas, introduced a bill to lend $100,000,000 to the people of Indiana on real estate securities to enable them to pay off their mortgages.

PRESIDENT OF LIBERIA.

New York, Jan. 8.—Joseph James Cheeseman was inaugurated president of Liberia on January 1. He is a Baptist minister and also a merchant in Liberia.

FRENCH REVENUE.

Paris, Jan. 8.—The revenue returns for 1891 show a surplus of 100,000,000 francs over the expenditures.

Gov. Hill's Democracy.

Senator Hill's famous saying, "I am a democrat," so much ridiculed and perverted by foes inside and outside the party, was repeated in his farewell speech. His speech can be reduced to that one pithy summing up. But there can be no doubt as to the quality of his democracy. There may be differences of opinion concerning the legislative policy he proposes, but that he is a democrat of the sturdiest type no one can doubt.—St. Louis Republic.

Might Try Volapuk.

A Chicago contemporary has published a pronunciamento concerning the world's fair in 25 different languages. All of them, except English, are spoken in Chicago. A strange omission, however, is the Chicago guarantee not to call upon the government for a bonus. Doubtless the feelings of Chicago in regard to that guarantee could not be expressed in 25 languages.—St. Louis Republic.

They Swallowed the Camel.

It is funny to see the wrath exhibited by the New York Tribune, Mail and Express and the Standard-Union over that decision of the New York court of appeals. And yet they all sustained the electoral commission.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

New York Mayor's Magnanimity.

The mayor of New York recommends in his address that the commercial metropolis of this continent take steps to be properly represented at the approaching fair to be held in the town of Chicago. This is truly magnanimous.—Boston Herald.

THE WORKHOUSE BOARD

Transact a Little Business Yesterday Afternoon.

At the meeting of the workhouse board yesterday Charles Overhalt was granted a parole on condition that he leave the city. The same action was taken in the case of A. J. McDonald. The case of George Bennett was continued. No action was taken on the pardon asked for in behalf of Charles Faber. Dr. Hipp suggested that John Kelly and Samuel Schwager be sent to the infirmary, but no action was taken, as the two men will probably be sent to Bay City and Bowling Green, respectively.

The pay roll, and the regular schedule of bills, amounting to $1,101.65 were approved.

The superintendent's report for the month showed a total daily average of 84 5-6 males and 3 1-6 females.

The board approved the contract for caring for Rising Sun prisoners at the rate of 40 cents per day.

New York, Jan. 8.—Mrs. Marshall O. Roberts, one of New York's society leaders, was married yesterday in Calvary church to Col. Ralph Vivian, of Her Britannic Majesty's horse guards.

A WIFE AT TWELVE.

She Is a Musical Prodigy and Her Husband Is Only Twenty-five.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 8.—Angelina Faccenda, a musical prodigy, just 12 years of age, sat in Chief of Police Taylor's office yesterday afternoon.

In a chair at her side was Frank Bennett, a handsome young man about 13 years her senior.

These two had been fond of each other for many months and took the first opportunity to elope. They were man and wife.

Bennett is a grocery man. His child-wife lived with her father. Faccenda is a professional musician and his little daughter was the pride of his life until a few weeks ago. The piccolo is her favorite instrument, and upon it she plays with wonderful skill. She always played with her father at concerts and private entertainments.

Saturday night the musician missed his daughter and her favorite instrument. He notified the police. In the afternoon the girl was found on Fourth street and was arrested. Her father was sent for, and Bennett, who had seen her arrested, was also in the chief's office.

Before her father arrived Angelina produced a marriage license, showing that on Sunday evening she had been married in New Albany. The marriageable age for girls in Indiana is 18 years. The police could not interfere between man and wife and so dismissed the child.

CHILE AND GARZA.

Would it not be well enough for the United States government to put off the war with Chile until it settles that little trouble with Garza on the Mexican border?—New Delta.

If Chile has really concluded to say she's sorry, as now appears to be the case, the least Brother Harrison can do is to reciprocate with the words, "Yer 'and, President Montt, yer 'and!"—Boston Globe.

It is intimated that Chile will make ample and unqualified apologies for the outrages committed upon the sailors of the Baltimore. Of course, to this will have to be added the necessary indemnities for the families of the slaughtered men. The confirmation of this news will be indeed welcome.—Indianapolis News.

With Garza's revolutionists in hiding on the Texas frontier and Chile preparing to make an apology for what she has done, it begins to look as if we could again throw our whole strength into the rough-and-tumble fight that is an established part of our presidential campaign.—Chicago Mail.

The fact should not be overlooked that little Chile, as well as this big country, has its fingoes. If President Harrison and Secretary Blaine find it necessary to humor a foolish and mischievous war spirit in the United States the same necessity also exists in Chile. But it must be said that thus far the Chilean authorities have displayed great prudence, moderation and skill in the face of their many and great embarrassments.—Philadelphia Record.

WALKS AND TALKS.

"Senator Sherman is known as a cold, cynical, selfish man, but with all that he undoubtedly is the greatest financier and political student our country knows," remarked G. W. Brown. "Did you ever hear of Tyler's prayer? Well, I can't help but think Sherman offers one not a great deal unlike it. This prayer, I often heard my parents talk about, and it was something after this style, 'God bless our home, me and my wife, my son John and his wife, us four and no more. Amen.'"

"Insurance business is very quiet just at present," said E. A. Pope. "It is always dull at this time of year. Business men are invoicing and endeavoring to ascertain on which side of the page their year's business has landed them. As soon as they find out where they stand and have determined on about what scale they will conduct the next year's business, then and not until then will the insurance man get a show. They will know then just how much they want and how much their business will warrant. Insurance business for the year has been very good, though there have been a great many heavy losses, but they have only served to illustrate the necessity of insurance, so it is an ill wind that blows nobody good."

"Where did the title trunk line originate? Well, you know it refers to the great railway lines running east and west," said General Passenger Agent James M. Hall, "but the title originated with the first line that was constructed into the great west out of New York city. The word trunk was applied as referring to the body of a tree. The railroad was gradually constructed, slow but sure, just like our mighty oak grows. As it progressed branch lines spurred out in every direction. The trunk grew until now it extends from coast to coast, and its branches reach to every point on the continent."

"Street car conductors have a great many disagreeable things to contend with in the discharge of their duties, but they all fade into utter insignificance when the passenger with an arm load of parcels gets aboard," remarked a street car conductor, as he stood at the steps of his car with a be-whiskered spitz dog in one arm and a band box and bird cage on the other, waiting for a lady inside to close an enlongated conversation with a friend inside. "If there happens to be space enough vacant they pile themselves down first and follow with the bundles, which are heaped into the only vacant seat in the car. From the time they take possession of four fares' worth of room until they fall all over the other passengers getting out, they invariably sit up and glance at each new passenger that comes in and stands up, like a bull dog over a bone. If there happens to be only room enough for one, they sit down and hold the bundles on their laps and the laps of their neighbors. I wish the company would either attach a bundle car, or charge a fare extra for bundles."

HER VISION CAME TRUE.

Mrs. Jane Smithe Dies After Seeing Her Husband's Ghost.

New York, Jan. 8.—Mrs. Jane Mary Smithe died Tuesday at her home, 244 North Second street, Brooklyn. Her husband, Thomas Smithe, died five weeks ago. While yet in good health two weeks ago Mrs. Smithe declared that a vision of her husband appeared to her at midnight and beckoned her unto him, saying: "Come to me."

"You are dead, and I am alive; so wait until I am dead," was the reply.

"It will not be long," replied the vision, which then disappeared. She died from appoplexy, followed by an attack of paralysis. She had had two husbands, and as she had loved both equally well she determined that her remains should rest in the grave with neither, so she will be buried n the plot with her parents in Cypress Hill cemetery.

BOUGHT THE FLOUR MILLS.

Ogden, Utah, Jan. 8.—Joseph Clark, representing an English syndicate, has bought 22, or all but six, of the flour mill in Utah. The transaction involves $1,800,000 for the plants and $350,000 for stock now on hand. The company proposes to control the entire wheat crop of the territory. The mills purchased by Mr. Clark have a capacity of 2,024 barrels of flour per day.

FULTON COUNTY FARMERS.

Wauseon, Jan. 8.—With yesterday afternoon's session the Twelfth Annual Session of the Fulton County Farmers' Institute association was brought to a close.

A goodly number were present during yesterday's sessions and none could but glean some sunshine from the many useful thoughts and facts brought out by the speakers. A. M. Lee was elected president for the coming year.

WAYS AND MEANS.

Washington, Jan. 8.—The ways and means committee at its first meeting elected R. W. Springer, son of Chairman Springer, as clerk; A. J. Jones, of Chicago, assistant clerk, and J. D. Darnell, of Springfield, Ill., as messenger. After considering the enlargement of the committee room the committee adjourned subject to the call of the chair.

GEN. GREGG DEAD.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Gen. John Irving Gregg, a distinguished soldier of the war with Mexico and the late war, has died at his residence in this city in his 66th year.

Gen. Gregg had resided here since he was retired from active service. He was born in Bellefonte, Pa., in 1826.

TAKEN FOR A CRANK.

A semi-fiendish delight often seems to possess people of strong nerves in sneering at those with weak ones. The irritability of the nervous hypochondriac is ridiculed as natural ill temper. The very genuine and distressing symptoms from which he suffers are made light of. "He" or "she is a crank!" is the cheerful sort of sympathy with which the nervous invalid meets from the unfeeling and the thoughtless. At the same time no complaint is more defined and real, none has a more easily explainable origin when it is chronic. Imperfect digestion and assimilation are always accompanied by nervous debility and anxiety. Build up the powers of assimilation and digestion with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and nervous symptoms, sick headaches and a generally feeble condition of the system are remedied. Remember that fearful ravages are produced by la grippe among weakly, nervous people. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters cures it, and prevents malaria, rheumatism and kidney complaint.

City Auditor's Office.

Toledo, O., Dec. 10, 1891.

The committee on ways and means of the common council of the city of Toledo, and the undersigned, invite sealed proposals at this office to

MONDAY, JAN. 11TH, 1892,

at 7 o'clock p. m. for the purchase of Street Improvement Bonds, to the amount of One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifteen 42-100 ($1,715 42-100) Dollars bearing date Dec. 7, 1891, and payable as follows: One Hundred and Sixty-seven 42-100 ($167 42-100) Dollars on the 7th day of June, 1892, and One Hundred and Seventy-two Dollars at the expiration of every six months thereafter, to and including Dec. 7, 1896. At the office of the city treasurer, with interest at the rate of five (5) per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually at the place as evidenced by coupons to be attached to said bonds.

Said improvement bonds are issued pursuant to Section 2704 to 2707 of the revised statutes of the state of Ohio, and also under an ordinance of the common council of the city of Toledo, Ohio, "To provide for the issue of improvement bonds to pay the cost and expense of the improvement of Stickney Avenue, from Erie street to Ontario street."—Passed Nov. 16th, 1891.

The said bonds will be sold at not less than par and accrued interest, to the highest bidder.

Bidders will be required to state the gross amount they will pay for the bonds besides the accrued interest to date of delivery at Toledo, Ohio. They will also be required to deposit with each bid an amount of money or a certified check on some responsible bank equal to at least five (5) per centum of the par value of the bonds, so bid for, as a guarantee of good faith, and that the bid so made (if successful) will be fulfilled in accordance with the terms thereof, and the requirements of the law and ordinances. When the bids have been examined, and the award made according to law, all monies or checks deposited as guarantees shall be returned to the depositor, or held by the city auditor subject to his call except that of the successful bidder, which shall be held and considered, and accepted as part payment of the bonds so awarded or sold, but should there be any repudiation of the contract or agreement, or refusal to accept and pay for the bonds so sold, then and in that case the deposit shall be forfeited to the city of Toledo, and shall become the property of said city, in compensation for loss and expenses attending the sale of said bonds and as liquidated damages for repudiation of bid. And no bid will be received if not accompanied by money or check aforesaid.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Proposals should be addressed to the Auditor of the city of Toledo, Ohio," and be indorsed "Proposals for improvement bonds."

W. P. WALKER, City Auditor.

Legal Notice.

David A. Fuller and Susan M. Fuller, his wife, whose place of residence is unknown, will take notice that on the 4th day of November, 1891, Geo. Schuler filed in the common pleas court of Lucas county, Ohio, his petition in which in substance he avers that the said defendant, David A. Fuller, is indebted to said plaintiff, Geo. Schuler, in the sum of $145.00, with interest on $275 from April 14, 1876, at eight per cent. to Feb. 29, 1884, and from that date interest on $145.00 at eight per cent. And further that to secure payment of said indebtedness on that date said defendants made, executed and delivered to said plaintiff a certain mortgage deed conveying to said plaintiff lots 4 and 6 in block 7 of the plat of North Toledo, Lucas county, Ohio. That the prayer of said petition is for judgment against said defendant, David Fuller, for the amount due to said plaintiff, and in default of payment thereof within a short time to be fixed by the court, that said premises may be sold to pay said debt, with interest and costs and taxes thereon according to their priority of lien.

Defendant is required to answer said petition on or before the 9th day of January, 1892, or a judgment and decree may be taken as prayed for against him.

Cucumber and Elder Flower Cream

Is not a cosmetic in the sence in which the term is popularly used, but permanently beautifies. It creates a soft, smooth, clear, velvety skin, and by daily use gradually makes the complexion several shades whiter. It is a constant protection from the effects of sun and wind and prevents sunburn and freckles and blackheads will never come while you use it. It cles ses the face far better than soap and water, nourishes and builds up the skin tissues and thus prevents the formation of wrinkles It gives the freshness, clearness and smoothness of skin that you had when a little girl. Every lady, young or old, ought to use it, as it gives a more youthful appearance to any lady and that permanently. It contains no acid, powder or alkali, and is as harmless as dew and as nourishing to the skin as dew is to the flower. Price $1.00. Ask your druggist for it

THE TRUTH AT LAST.

She was a flirt, 'twas plain to see,
And those not otherwise
Could read the maiden's history
In her expressive eyes.
And yet her beauty cast such spell
O'er each enamored youth
That when she said, "I love you well,"
They thought she spoke the truth.

She loved to take a stroll—why not?
With Harry in the park;
She loved, on Arthur's famous yacht,
In summer to embark;
Frank was her partner in the dance,
The galop, or the waltz,
And yet none of these gallants
Would call Miranda false.

Each thought that she to him was true,
And this one sent her flowers,
And that one bon-bons not a few
To while away the hours;
And still the fickle maid we find
Uneasy and distressed,
Because she'd not made up her mind
Which one she loved the best.

Then of a sudden Douglas came—
A true and valiant knight,
And fanned the spark into a flame,
And put all doubts to flight;
For when he played the lover's part
With fervor unsurpassed,
She said, "I'm yours—with all my heart!"
And spoke the truth at last.

—Truth.

It now requires but 13 pounds of water converted into steam with a pressure of 175 to 200 pounds in the boiler to secure one horse-power with a triple expansion engine. By the use of one-third more coal the pressure in the boiler and horse-power can be doubled.

George Phillips, aged 80 years, a farmer of Columbus, S. C., had gray hair and beard for 20 years. About 10 years ago it began to turn black, and is now as dark as when he was a young man. He has been confined to his home several years on account of paralysis.

The president of the Brooklyn bridge receives $5,000 a year salary, the secretary $4,000, the treasurer $4,000, the superintendent $6,000 and his assistant $4,000. The receipts of the bridge are always in excess of the expenditures, the profit during the year ending December 1, 1890, amounting to $150,000.

The Indians are artists in their way and make things which the palefaces like to have as aboriginal curios. The banks of the Columbia near Umatilla have for many years been rich with Indian relics and curios. One woman of that place has a collection of nearly 2,000 pieces, which has an enormous value.

The bail bond of Jeff Davis, bearing the signatures of Horace Greeley, Gerrit Smith and some other prominent men, has been missing from the files of the circuit court of Richmond since 1870, and how much longer it is difficult to say. The present clerk of the court thinks that the person who stole it is now dead.

Just what a young woman can do when she gets her mind to it is shown by the achievements of a good looking widow near Oshkosh, Wis. Her first husband's name was Mayd, and when she married again it was observed with some reasonable surprise that she had become Mrs. Wyffe.

At a recent meeting of the Shipmasters' Society of England, the fact was brought out that one fireman on board ship commits suicide to every 900 employed, as against one in 10,000 among landsmen. It is suggested that the high temperatures in which the men are compelled to work is, in a large measure, responsible for the great percentage of suicides.

A curious fashion has found its way into the manufacture of table hardware. The handles of table knives are now made of china to match the plates. There are sets for each course. Those for poultry have heads of the victims and little fluffy chicks and ducks upon them; those used with the game course have tiny flights of partridge and miniature long-legged snipe painted on them.

It is said that Mercedes Lopez, a Mexican woman who lives on the Rio Grande, is perhaps the longest haired woman in the world. She is some five feet in height, and when she stands erect her hair trails on the ground four feet and eight inches. Her hair is so thick that she can draw it around her so as to completely hide herself. Her present suit of hair is only five years old.

Prince George of Greece, who saved the czarowitz from a Japanese assassin several months ago, has recently performed another heroic deed. While on board a vessel in the Bay of Piraeus during a recent storm he saw a boat capsize in which was a sailor bound for his ship. Instantly the prince sprang overboard, seized the drowning man and swam with him to a point where help was possible.

A well-known compounder in Cambridge has developed in his labaratories where his goods are prepared a curious race of old men who never tell a secret. To enable him to guard the rich secrets of his laboratories, he pays his men with salaries that advance pace by pace with the length of service. The result is that the highest paid workman in his shops is a very old man, who may be seen tottering around with oatmeal water for the men.

EVERYBODY CARRIES A GUN.

The Western War by No Means Ended.

Arrest of the Chief Engineer of the Band of Murderers Who Killed Sheriff Dunn.

Arkalon, Ks., Jan. 8.—Deputy sheriffs are now scouring the country to arrest men who are supposed to have been implicated in the murder of Sheriff Dunn.

A deputy sheriff brought in young Estes at 10 o'clock. He was one of the conspirators who planned the murdering raid of Tuesday morning, and his arrest brings into prominence the widespread organization formed for murderous purposes.

He was a sort of chief engineer making plans of the roads about the marked victims' houses, which are said to have been presented at the regular meetings of the Stevens and Seward County Citizens' alliance, and these plans have been minutely followed.

Estes' arrest makes four reported, and 31 more warrants are now out for service.

The end is not yet, and every citizen seems to feel this, as all are heavily armed even while pursuing their usual vocations. The three alleged arch conspirators, Mrs. S. N. Wood, J. F. Van Vorhees and C. L. Calvert, although not yet arrested, are under surveillance. Trouble is looked for when the deputies enter Woodsdale.

Yesterday evening and night an exciting chase is reported to have taken place, ending in the neutral strip, the result not yet being known.

Two wagon loads of the conspirators, numbering 15 men, who had been in hiding south of Springfield, were discovered by an armed posse of citizens, and a running fire took place, which lasted clear to the line.

Part of the time the pursued and pursuers were less than a quarter of a mile apart, and during the fusilade that took place four of the fleeing men were seen to tumble in the wagon. But one of the pursuing party was hurt, and he only slightly.

When the courier returned the pursuers had just secured fresh horses, and were in hopes that a capture alive or dead would be made within a few hours.

Four Persons Killed.

Arkalon, Ks., Jan. 8.—The bloodshed arising from the long-continued trouble in southwestern Kansas is not yet ended. Deputy sheriffs have partially avenged the death of Sheriff Dunn. It is not known to be a positive fact, but it seems more than likely that as a result of the attempt of the deputies to bring the slayers of the sheriff to justice and force an expiation of the murder, four of the outlaws were killed yesterday afternoon. The report, however, needs confirmation before absolute reliance can be placed upon it. So far as known these are the facts:

A courier arrived here at noon, just in from the south line of the state. He reports a running conflict between the fleeing desperadoes and an armed posse of pursuers. According to his report, there were two wagons loaded with 25 of the men participating in the canyon battle.

They had been encamped in a gulch south of Springfield, where they were discovered. They saw their pursuers at about the same time, and they commenced the life and death race. For 10 miles the two parties were not within firing distance, but just before dusk the pursuing party came within less than a quarter of a mile of the desperadoes, and then firing commenced. This running fight was kept up on a level plain for a distance of four miles.

Following one fusilade four men were seen to tumble from their seats in the wagons, one in one and three in the other. It could not be seen whether they were killed or wounded. The pursuing party, finding that their jaded horses would not carry them farther, made a detour of some half mile to a ranch where they procured fresh horses, and the race was resumed.

The courier started back from that point. He said the pursuing party, numbering 14 men, would follow the desperadoes into No Man's Land and bring them back dead or alive. Another courier is hourly expected, and with him news of a battle, in which one side or the other will have sustained serious loss of life.

SKIN DISEASES.

What spectacle is more disgusting than that of a man or woman with a skin disease which shows itself in pimples or blotches on the hands, arms, face and neck? It is simply impure blood. See what Brandeth's Pill's did for a chronic case:

George Chapman, Pincening, Mich., says:

"For four years I was in the Mounted Infantry in the U. S. army, residing during that time principally in Texas. Almost all of that time I had a chronic skin disease, characterized by an eruption over the entire surface of my legs and thighs, arms and chest. The doctors termed it eczema. I had given up all hopes of ever being cured, when Brandreth's Pills were recommended to me. I concluded to try them, and I have thanked God daily since then that I did so. I used them for about three months, and by that time was completely cured, and have never had any trouble since."

BRING IN THE WOOD.

Result of a Chapel Meeting in a San Francisco Newspaper Office.

The Bee has been handed a copy of the Ploughshare and Pruning Hook, printed at Winchester, California, containing an account of the result of a little seance whereat the cry was for wood. As showing something of the trials of a well-regulated weekly paper, the result of the meeting is given below:

At a recent meeting of the Plowshare chapel, Slug 29 handed in the following resolutions, which the father of the chapel read, and which were then unanimously adopted:

Whereas, This office now being the proud possessor of a new wood-consuming heating apparatus; and

Whereas, the mornings and evenings at the present day and date above ground are chilly to a degree; and

Whereas, Every printer, including subs and apprentices, in this establishment find it toilsome and obnoxious to labor with cold fingers, noses and toeses; be it therefore

Resolved That the front office be instructed to inform delinquent subscribers that this establishment is now bereft of fire-wood. And be it further

Resolved, That any subscriber who is in debt to the Plowshare be informed that he may cancel said indebtedness by depositing at or near the back door of said Plowshare office in the town of Winchester, cord wood, or grease wood roots, to the amount of said indebtedness.

Subscribers will please take notice and govern themselves accordingly. Plenty of room in the backyard.

PRESS DELEGATES.

They Have a Grand Time in the Windy City.

Chicago, Jan. 8.—Major Moses P. Handy met the eastern delegates on their way to the international league of press clubs annual meeting at San Francisco next Wednesday, just outside the city limits yesterday afternoon. They were nearly four hours late when the express slowed up at Woodlawn, and the newspaper people in their special car were switched off into the world's fair grounds. Everything worth seeing was pointed out by Major Handy. It was a cold day for sight-seeing, but curiosity got the better of physical comfort and made the excursion one of interest to all. Returning to their car, the delegates were brought into the heart of the city at 5 p. m. over the Michigan Central and escorted to the Press club, where they were hospitably entertained, and later visited the Herald building. Here they became the guests of James W. Scott, who presided at a luncheon in their honor.

Informal addresses were made by Mr. Scott, Miss Kate Field, Mrs. Frank Leslie Wilde and Mr. Willie Wilde, and Mr. J. Seaver Page. In the evening the excursionists split up into a number of theatrical parties under the guidance of a committee especially chosen by the Press club. When the theaters closed the visitors again became the guests of the Press club until 11 p. m., when they proceeded westward on their journey over the Chicago & Northwestern.

HEALTHY. HAPPY. WHY?

Is he a bright child? Does he look healthy and happy? He is bright, and he is both healthy and happy. He is the little son of Mrs. Henry T. Bowers, wife of the well-known contractor and builder, who resides in Dorchester avenue, South Boston. Mrs. Bowers has had quite an experience with her children, which experience we give in her own words, as follows:

"I have a little boy two and one-half years of age, the perfect picture of rugged health, and also a little girl of four. I attribute their good health and good temper to the use of Dr. Hand's Remedies.

I have used, as occasion required, the entire line, and have had very marked results from the Colic Cure, Cough and Croup Medicine, and the Pleasant Physic. I have never had any but good result from the use of any of them."

No mother would make a statement like the above unless she knew wholly whereof she affirmed.

How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED,

As a general family remedy for dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

Harrison Is Getting Down to Business.

Dismissals to Take Place at Many Points.

If You Want to Work for Uncle Sam You Must Pull Hard for Grandpa's Hat From Now On.

New York, Jan. 8.—The Herald's Washington special says President Harrison will to-morrow furnish the first practical evidence that he is a candidate for re-election.

This action will be found in the dismissal of a number of employes in the office of the internal revenue collectors at Philadelphia.

The people who are marked for decapitation are anti-Harrison men and their places will be filled by other republicans who are favorable to the president's second term aspirations.

Not only in Philadelphia is this to be the line of action, but it is understood the order covers the whole spoil system of the republican party.

English markets as reported herein are lower for wheat and corn, but steady at decline.

The Markets To-Day.

"It never rains but it pours," is an old maxim without a basis of truth, like many other old saws, but it illustrates what we want to say. Now that the bull sentiment of day before yesterday was changed in a day to a bear sentiment, nothing can be discovered in the signs of the times that does not prove the bear theory. Everything is made to prove that wheat is about worthless. The talk runs, that "the visible supply increases every week." Is wheat worth any less for being in elevators instead of farmers' hands? "The government estimate exceeded previous public opinion." We undertake to say that public opinion had focused upon as much or more than the government report. Decreased demand abroad is urged, and that is always expected at this time of year, but prices at our seaboard are within an export basis every day.

The ocean stock afloat for the United Kingdom and the continent is now 30,000,000 bu. If all of it was received in a week it would be but four weeks' requirements of foreign wheat, and half of it is not due for three or four months. The fact is we are squatting to this bear sentiment of the country, and pounding down our own values, and which, of course are the criterion of values around the world. Western prices have declined 8c since November 27. It is a good time to call a halt, Mr. Bear. How is that for good common sense and judgment?

The wheat markets of this country have had another adverse day. Prices are weak and lower. We would like to stop this declining business, but we do not know how to do it. We suppose when the market gets tired of it a change will come. It cannot come too soon for us. We hope and believe in good prices, and we say what we can on that side, but the elements are against us, just now.

Corn has been fairly maintained but prices are lower in sympathy with wheat.

Before the close of 'Change the markets for wheat and corn gained a little more strength and the decline was only slight. London, Liverpool, Berlin, Antwerp and Paris are all quoted as closing lower.

In New York January and May wheat closed steady. January and May corn about steady, and January oats 1-8d lower.

In Chicago wheat closed unchanged, and corn 1-4 to 3-8.

In Toledo there has been a large increase in business. Wheat for May delivery was largely dealt in, and a large portion of the trading was at quite a decline from yesterday's closing prices, but before the end of 'change the market became stronger and closed only 1-4c below yesterday. On the call May wheat sold at 97 3-4 to 97 7-8. After the call January sold at 92 3-4 to 93. February at 93 3-4 to 94 1-4; May at 97 7-8 to 97 1-4 and closed at 98.

Cash wheat was more inquired for. Prices were lower, but closed with small loss. No. 2 soft sold at 93 to 92 1-4 and closed at 93 bid, a loss of 1-4. No. 3 soft at 89 1-2. No. 2 white at 91. No other grades dealt in.

Corn—No. 3 at 40; No. 4 at 38 1-2; No. 3 yellow at 41 1-2.

Rye—No. 2 at 86.

Dressed hogs—$4 75.

Clover seed was decidedly lower and weak. Prime for cash at $5 50 to $5 45; January at $5 40; February at $5 45; March, $5 50. First half at $5 50; No. 2 at $5 25.

Detroit, Jan. 8.—Close—Wheat—No. 2 red cash, 93c bid; May, 93 1-8c bid; No. 1 white cash, 92 1-2c. Corn—No. 2 cash, 41 1-2c. Oats—No. 2 cash, 33 3-4c.

CUT IN THE CHIN.

John Miller, a tramp, who has been lodging at the police station for several days, appeared at the police station this morning about 10 o'clock with his lip and chin cut and bleeding. He said that he was a cigar maker and had gone into a shop to procure work, when the proprietor asked to see his union card. He told him he had lost it and at this the cigar maker called him a "scab" and in the quarrel cut Miller in the chin with a knife. An officer went with Miller to the place where he had had the trouble and he pointed out Joseph Steinman as the man who had cut him. Steinman was arrested and taken to the station, afterwards being released on bail. He claims that Miller was prowling around the house and in driving him away he was hurt.

TEWFIK PASHA DEAD.

The Khedive of Egypt Has Passed Away.

A Paragon Compared with Other Khedives, He Was Much Respected by His People.

Cairo, Jan. 8.—The khedive is dead. He has been suffering from influenza, which developed into congestion of the lungs, and he died yesterday afternoon.

Tewfik Pasha (Mohammed Tewfik), khedive of Egypt, was born November 19, 1852, being the eldest son of the late Khedive Ismail. He succeeded to the viceroyalty of Egypt by a decree of the Ottoman empire June 25, 1879, upon the forced abdication of his father, and received the investure on August 14.

He is the sixth ruler of Egypt in the dynasty Mohammed Ali Pasa.

Since 1882, the khedive has acted in close harmony with the British authorities. He was a loyal and an honest man, was neither cruel, vicious, extravagant nor an intriguer, and as far as character goes a very paragon among khedives.

Tewfik married January 18, 1873, the Princess Eminch, daughter of the late El Hami Pachi, and has two sons and two daughters. He behaved with noble devotedness during the outbreak of cholera in 1883. In company with his wife he visited the sick and dying in spite of the remonstrances of his ministers.

The death of the khedive was entirely unexpected.

When it became generally known that the ruler of Egypt was dangerously ill, groups of people gathered at the gates of the Helorian place where the khedive was lying. At 6 o'clock last evening (Cairo time) a bulletin was issued stating that the khedive was in a critical condition. It is believed that at that time he must have been dead. At 7 o'clock his death was announced.

Mohammed Tewfik will be succeeded by Prince Abbas Pacha, his eldest son, who was born July 14, 1874.

The funeral of the khedive will take place to-morrow. The body will be placed in the mausoleum at the citadel mosque. The route of the funeral procession will be from Heloüan to the Abidin place, and thence to the mausoleum.

The khedive's sons have been hastily summoned from Vienna. They will be conveyed to Egypt by a special chartered steamer.

WHERE ANARCHY REIGNS.

The Situation Has Become Alarming in Tangiers.

England Has Threatened to Land Her Soldiers Unless the Local Government Takes Action.

London, Jan. 8.—Absolute anarchy reigns in the town and province of Tangier.

The British minister, Sir Charles Evan Smith, has sent an ultimatum to the minister of foreign affairs to the effect that unless the sultan took energetic measures to defend the town English sailors would be landed.

The minister replied that a large body of troops was coming from Fez.

The French, Spanish and Italian residents resent the vigorous action of the English, believing that they are taking advantage of the local trouble to make a a cour de main. The Italian and French warships are expected hourly.

The British vessels, three in number, have their boats ready to land bluejackets at a moment's notice.

The remarkable growth which, till within two years, was brought about principally by one person telling another, is a monument to Garfield Tea's merits.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

A Poor Fat Men's Club—The Danger Signal—Spider and Fly.

J. C. Stewart and his company of comedians played the Fat Men's Club to a very small house at Wheeler's last evening. It was about as large as they deserved, however, as the entertainment contains nothing of merit, beyond a few songs that were well rendered. The performance will be repeated to-night.

Rosabel Morrison.

The Danger Signal, is a new play, written by DeMille, and, therefore, a play with a plot and a good construction. There is considerable interest in the play. Sensational, it is yet not overdrawn in details. The scene is a yestern one, and a mountain station is the first. The sight of the station by daylight is very striking and attractive, in that it is novel. In fact, the play abounds in striking scenery. The situations are thrilling enough to make it interesting enough, and it goes.

Miss Morrison is a piquant and light young actress, and reminds one of Lotta in her younger days. In the Danger Signal she has a play which is a suitable vehicle for the display of her unique and engaging talents.

The scenery is novel and elaborate, a monster locomotive and a rotary cyclone snow plow are the latest stage effects introduced to give the play the requisite realism.

Spider and Fly.

M. B. Leavitt's spectacular pantomime and novelty combine, Spider and Fly, will be presented at the Wheeler Saturday evening, January 9, with manifold novelties and a host of talented performers. The large company is an entirely new one, and was recruited abroad especially for this production, which embraces music, pantomime, comedy, ballet, and dazzling spectacle. There are 40 people in the organization. Spider and Fly, notwithstanding its numerous adjuncts, has a story to tell, a deeply interesting one, which conveys a moral as well as brilliantly adorning a tale. Of course the edifying plot is the foundation for a delightful evening's enjoyment, made up of catchy music, humorous topical songs, several magnificent ballets, glittering processions, grand marches, grotesque comedy and showers of witticisms.

CANADA'S WOES.

The Dual Language Trouble Breaks Out Again.

Winnipeg, Jan. 8.—The dual language trouble has broken out again in the northwestern assembly at Regina, over the announcement made by the premier Wednesday that members would be allowed to make speeches in any language they liked, but that the proceedings would only be printed in English.

This has caused great excitement and serious threats were made by French members.

KILLED A THIEF.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 8.—Henry Humble, colored, was shot and killed in the furnishing goods store of Robert James yesterday by W. J. James, son of the proprietor. Humble had stolen some goods in the store and young James tried to make him disgorge when a row occurred during which James fired the fatal shot.

A GRATEFUL MOTHER

Her Son's Loathsome Disease Removed.

Boy Only Twelve Years Old—Chronic Catarrh—Great Discharge From Nose and Throat.

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Dec. 4, 1891.
The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.:
Gentlemen: It is with great pleasure that I write of the benefit derived from your remedy, Pe-ru-na. My little boy, about 12 years old, had always been troubled with catarrh very bad for several years, and I had great fears of his going into consumption. He had a bad cough that I could not check, and his head was in a terrible condition. His head discharged so much for years that it was a charge on my mind to keep him supplied with handkerchiefs. I had to use every rag that I could get at hand. It was astonishing how he could discharge so much from his nose. I commenced to give him Pe-ru-na about a month ago, and the discharge from his head is entirely stopped ,and also his cough. He does not now have to use a handkerchief at all. The Pe-ru-na seems to act like magic in his case. I feel as if I cannot find words to express my gratitude for the medicine; but I do regret that I never tried it before. I thought there was no cure for him, and had given up trying to have him cured; but when I saw the disease so thoroughly explained in the paper by Dr. Hartman I thought I would try his medicine. I never will be without Pe-ru-na in the house, and I will recommend it to all my friends.
Very sincerely yours,
MRS. A. E. ACKERMAN,
E. Grand Ave., Chippewa Falls, Wis.

Pe-ru-na as a Family Medicine.

Used according to the directions, Pe-ru-na will secure the family against catarrh, colds, coughs, pneumonia, pleurisy, bronchitis and consumption. It is a fact of ever-increasing astonishment that so many otherwise sensible and provident people will, for the neglect of so simple a precaution as to have a bottle of Pe-ru-na at hand, bring upon themselves the needless suffering and foolish expense that a professional man is forced to witness every day.

A cold in the head, which a single bottle of Pe-ru-na will cure, soon becomes a case of chronic catarrh, which will require many bottles to entirely cure. A sore throat, which one bottle of Pe-ru-na will cure, soon becomes chronic pharyngitis, or enlarged tonsils, which will require many bottles. A slight cough which without a vestige of doubt, would soon disappear with the use of Pe-ru-na, becomes chronic bronchitis, which requires a persistent use of Pe-ru-na for some time. Every practicing physician sees many cases of consumption each year due directly to a neglect of coughs, colds, etc., which, if Pe-ru-na had been kept in the house and used according to directions, would have been prevented.

In no other department of domestic arrangements is there such stupendous disregard of the welfare of the family as in guarding against the common ills of life by the use of effective and reliable family remedies. If the following advice could reach every household in the land, and with such eloquence as to win obedience, it would convey a blessing to each of a value that would be difficult to exaggerate. The advice is this: Get a bottle of Pe-ru-na, read the instructions on the bottle until they are thoroughly understood, do exactly as they direct, and no catarrh, cold, cough, sore thoat, bronchitis, pleurisy, pneumonia, or any other climatic disease will disturb the peace of the household so long as this is continued. To have this remedy at hand before the attack comes, to be intelligent as to its use, is only the most common foresight used in all other departments of ordinary business.

Send to The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company of Columbus, Ohio, for a free pamphlet on the treatment of catarrh, la grippe, coughs, colds, consumption, and all the climatic diseases of winter.

MURDERED A MESSENGER.

A Fifteen Year Old Boy Killed by Highwaymen.

Omah, Neb., Jan. 8.—At an early hour this morning Oscar Olson, a 15 year-old boy, who was carrying a Western Union message to the World-Herald, was found unconscious in an ally near the telegraph office. His scull was fractured and he never recovered consciousness, dying at 8 o'clock a. m. In his delirium he kept saying: "Don't strike me; I have no money." From this it is supposed he was slugged by a footpad. The World-Herald has started a fund for a reward for the detection of the murderer.

Listens to the Story of a Keely-Cured Drinker,

And Adopts a Ringing Resolution on the Police Matron Question—Other Business Transacted.

The ladies were late gathering into the meeting of Union of Unions yesterday afternoon, probably not all understanding that the winter meetings will open at 2:30 o'clock. Before the meeting was over, the pleasant parlor of the Washington Street Congregational church was well filled. The session was a very interesting one.

Mrs. Lousie Eck presided, and Mrs. Affie Hitchens was at her post as secretary. After devotional exercises President Eck introduced Geo. S. Tambling, who with four others, was present from the I. O. G. T. Mr. Tambling said the various lodges of the I. O. G. T. had each appointed a committee of three to arrange for holding public temperance meetings, one each week, in different parts of the city. The committee was present to ask the W. C. T. unions to appont similar committees, the committees to work together.

On motion a committee was appointed from the Union of Unions to assist in getting up a program for the first of these meetings, which will be held next Monday evening, at the Lagrange Street Congregational church, corner of Lagrange and Frederick streets. Mrs. Samuel Bartlett and Mrs. Affie Hitchens were appointed on the committee, the third member to be selected from Willard union. Mrs. Judge Bentley, of the Non-Partisan W. C. T. U. was also requested to attend the meeting. The various unions will be requested to appoint permanent committees, three each, and is hoped that ultimately all temperance organizations in the city will join in the movement for these weekly temperance meetings.

Concerning the Police Matron.

The committee from the Union of Unions which had visited the police matron during the month reported, the report being in substance like the one given before the suffrage society, which appeared in yesterday's Bee.

On motion the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Union of Unions that the police matron work at the Toledo station is not being properly done, and that Police Matron Stebbins is in every way incompetent to fill the position.

The committee to visit the police matron this month was appointed as follows: Mrs. Samuel Bartlett, Mrs. W. R. Jones, Mrs. Phebe Clark, Mrs. Nill.

Mrs. Eck, for the committee of public drinking fountains, reported that Mr. Shaw, of Shaw, Kendall & Co., told her there were several fountains ready to put up as soon as warm weather came. Mrs. Bartlett reported one had been put in on the East Side and the credit for the work given a saloon keeper.

The Exponent of the Keely Cure.

President Eck then introduced Mr. E. C. Knight, as one who had taken treatment at the Keely Institute, at Dwight, Ill., and Mr. Knight, in an unassuming manner, told a very interesting story.

He began by saying that the cause of his going to the institute was of course plain to all. It was the cause for which many men need to go. He had been one of those men who thought a little liquor drinking was a good thing, and he had not been alarmed about himself until he found when he wanted to stop he could not, though he tried his best to overcome the habit. He read what Dr. Keely said that drinking was a disease and not a vice, and he felt much obliged to the doctor for the statement, and concluded to try the cure.

He was glad to give his experience, hoping it would help others who were in the same need. That men of all stations in life were in such need he was sure, for he found at the institute all kinds of men, to his surprise: Lawyers, scholars, legislators, congressmen, men of all kinds of business, chief justices from different states, United States judges.

He himself did his last drinking during the last political campaign in the city, as he was electioneering, and drinking was part of an electioneering program. He started for the institute on election day, after voting. It took a good deal of exertion to face the journey and go through it, and all the way he felt as if every man, woman and child who looked at him knew where he was going and what for.

The Treatment.

Arrived at the station in Dwight, he found waiting for the incoming train some 400 or 500 persons, all patients. He went to the institute, and registered, and was relieved of all his money. He was asked what liquor he drank, how long he had been drinking, and when he drank last. To the last question he replied that he had drank about a quart during the night, on the train.

He was then told to take off his coats, which he did. The attendant then made a slit in his shirt sleeves, and an incision in his arm, and gave him a hypodermic injection. The injections are so strong that a strong man, raving drunk, whom it takes two to hold, can be sobered by one in 20 minutes, Mr. Knight explained.

After receiving the injection he was given a bottle of whisky and a bottle of tonic, and went to his boarding place. The tonic he took every two hours while he remained in Dwight; of the whisky he drank about three ounces. The most of it he drank the first day; the second day he really didn't care for it, and on the third day he couldn't drink any.

At the institute he was told the whisky habit is the easiest to cure, the cigarette habit comes next, beer third. The opium and morphine habits are the hardest to cure.

After one week he ate heartily and slept well, which he had not been able to do for some time. After some ten days, and this, he said, was the experience of all patients, he lost all interest in things generally. His eyesight failed, he began sentences which he did not finish, his hands were dry, his throat parched. This, he claimed, showed the exceeding strength of the medicine. After two weeks, many patients suffer from severe skin irritation and eruption which, the doctors at the institute explain, is the liquor coming out. The hardest drinkers have this trouble most severely.

In three weeks' time the doctors pronounced Mr. Knight cured, though he had gone to the institute ready to stay ten months, and he came home. He has now no inclination to drink, though his business takes him into saloons every day. He couldn't drink, but shudders at the thought of it, or at the sight of another drinking.

He believes his cure permanent because heretofore when he had left off drinking for a time he always felt a craving for it. Now he doesn't think of it unless it is offered, and then it nauseates him. He believes he has also received back his full will power by the treatment, and, further, that he would die if he began drinking again.

On the last point he said that Dr. Keely's cure does cure, but perhaps five per cent. of those treated go back to drink. Of these the doctors at the institute say that nine out of every ten die. As he doesn't want to die, he doesn't propose to drink again, even if he could, which at present he could not.

Mr. Knight showed the ladies a group picture of patients taken with himself, from all of whom, as from many others, he has heard since his return; all, like himself, firmly assured they were cured. He also showed a Bychlorate-of-Gold Club badge he wears. The club started last April with two members, and now numbers 2,555 cured men.

In response to inquiries about cigarette patients, he said there had been some 300 cured, and only one hopeless case found, in which the man's brain was fairly gone from excessive cigarette smoking. Asked as to price, he said the treatment was $20 a week, and board could be had in Dwight all the way from $5 to $21. His own cure had cost about $100, transportation included.

The ladies thanked Mr. Knight for his address, but declared their own adhesion to the doctrine that prohibition was the right cure for the drinking habit.

Scientific Instruction.

The following committee was appointed to wait upon Superintendent Compton, and ask that a paper on the effects of alcohol on the human system be given a place on the program of the coming teachers' institute: Mesdames Callard, Edwards, Sumner, Clark and Bartlett.

Lunches for Mail Carriers.

The subject was brought up of furnishing free lunches for mail carriers, in order that they may not lunch in saloons, and since they must lunch somewhere, as they breakfast at 5 o'clock. Owing to the lateness of the hour this subject was laid over to the next meeting.

The next meeting will be held Thursday afternoon, February 4, with Willard union, at the Third Presbyterian church.

THE INFLUENZA.

London, Jan. 8.—A dispatch from Vienna says that at Stammersdorf, a suburb of that city, 15 deaths from influenza have occurred within two days. All the schools in the vicinity are closed.

At Dunkirk, France, influenza is epidemic, the mortality having increased 30 per cent.

SUNK AT SEA.

London, Jan. 8.—The British steamer Crystal collided last night with an unknown schooner off the Tyne. The Crystal foundered soon after the collision. Her crew was saved.

DISTRESS WARRANTS.

Berlin, Jan. 8.—During the year there have been 40,000 distress warrants issued in Dresden. The number of bailiffs has, in consequence, been increased.

WORDS OF WARNING

Against Toledo's Headlong Rush Into Debt.

City Solicitor Read Gives Some Pointers

To the Street Committee—The Street Railway Conductor Ordinance Again in the Ring—Other Committee Business.

Several council committees met last evening and a number of important matters were considered, but the amount of business transacted was not large.

Before the street committee City Solicitor Read had a few remarks of warning to make and the result was a step toward a better condition of city finances.

"I consider it my duty as city solicitor," said Mr. Read, "to call the attention of this committee to a matter which is of the utmost importance. It is a question that we must meet square in the face. We have come to a point in the finances of the city where every improvement made is a menace to the city's credit. We have reached a point where it embarrasses the city officers seriously in the management of city affairs. However, under the law, we can go back to the old way of paying for improvements by assessments. Some years ago we had a law passed authorizing the city to issue bonds anticipating an improvement and pay the contractors in cash. That worked well for a few years and contractors made lower prices on improvements, but now, as the bonds do not sell, the contractors are taking into account the possibility of delay in receiving their money and prices are higher.

"You can make your legislation so that improvements will be paid for as before by assessments given to the contractors and this will not impair the city's credit. I must urge this upon your committee and ask that no ordinance be passed where bonds must be issued. Bonds must still be issued for intersections, but these are always readily taken. Bankers don't want our street improvement bonds, as they are payable at short time with too little interest. Every bond issued and not sold is a detriment to the city of Toledo."

The committee agreed with the city solicitor and approved, without discussion, a motion by Mr. Macomber directing city officials, when preparing improvement legislation, to make the improvements payable in assessments.

The committee then awarded several contracts as follows: For turnpiking Lane avenue, M. M. Goulden, $35.64; for turnpiking Russell street, Willard to Raymer, M. M. Goulden, $75.99; for turnpiking St. Louis street from Starr avenue to French street, M. M. Goulden, $45.21.

An ordinance was approved to pave Scottwood avenue from Bancroft street to Virginia.

A resolution was approved to pave Junction avenue from Campbell street to the Lake Shore tracks.

A petition to pave the central 28 feet of Fulton street, from Bancroft to Central avenue, with asphalt, was referred to the city solicitor.

A resolution to grade Yondota street from French street to the Lake Shore tracks was re-approved.

* * *

The railroad committee met and Mr. Coleman at once introduced a general street railway ordinance which among other things, provided that gates and conductors shall be placed on all cars. This is the same ordinance that the mayor vetoed and Mr. Coleman started it as new business and declared that he intended to fight for the passage of this as long as he is in the council.

Mr. Leroux made some objections to again taking up an ordinance which had been vetoed by the mayor and the veto sustained. He moved that it be laid on the table, but his motion received no second.

Mr. Coleman then moved that the ordinance be approved and this motion carried, Mr. Leroux alone voting no, and Messrs. Coleman, Hartford, Swain, Macomber and Albrecht voting aye.

The committee on markets had considerable discussion over the resolution to remove the scales from the Superior street market ground.

Mr. James Wright, the gardener, was present and in behalf of the gardeners, asked that the resolution be passed, for the reason that if the scales remain where they are now, at the end of the old market shed, the new shed will be practically separated from the other and its value depreciated very much.

The man owning the scales was also on hand to oppose the resolution and the same was lost after much talk, by a tie vote.

* * *

The committee on annexation discussed the advisability of taking in certain lands beyond West Toledo, but finally adjourned until Wednesday without taking and action.

* * *

A number of resolutions for new sidewalks were approved by the sidewalk committee.

The committee on claims approved a long schedule of bills.

* * *

The sewer committee awarded to F. E. Cole the contract for building sewer 403 in Galena street, for 3,738.04.

The assessments for sewer No. 375 in Wisconsin and Heston streets were referred to a sub-committee consisting of Messrs. Taylor and Schmuhl, as there was some complaint.

An ordinance to build a sewer in Hicks street from Detroit avenue to Clinton street was laid on the table.

Resolutions were adopted for new sewers in Ravine alley and in Lenk street.

AMERICAN INVENTIONS IN INDIA.

Something of Interest to all Americans.

A Calcutta letter says that American inventions and discoveries are fast displacing the older ones of English manufacture in the Indian Empire. Thus, a few years ago, the American harvesters and reapers were entirely unknown, where now there are many. The American telephone has been introduced in most of the large cities. Stranger than all, the old-fashioned, huge pills are fast giving place to Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, or "P. P. P.," which were first introduced in London some years ago by their American proprietors. Every Englishman who enjoys good eating, must have his dinner-pill, and it is not unusual to see distinguished persons draw from their waistcoats a tiny little vial of these Pellets, and take one with their wine.

After taking one you feel well, instead of bilious and constipated; your sick headache, dizziness and indigestion are gone. It's done mildly and easily, too. These are tiny, sugar-coated, but thorough in results. One Pellet's laxative, three to four are cathartic. They regulate and cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels—quickly, but thoroughly. They are guaranteed to give satisfaction.

CHEATING IN HORSE BLANKETS

Nearly every pattern of 5/A Horse Blanket is imitated in color and style. In most cases the imitation looks just as good as the genuine, but it hasn't the warp threads, and so lacks strength, and while it sells for only a little less than the genuine it isn't worth one-half as much. The fact that 5/A Horse Blankets are copied is strong evidence that they are THE STANDARD, and every buyer should see that the 5/A trade mark is sewed on the inside of the Blanket.

GIVE YOUR BOY A CHANCE.

A Boost in Life That Will Help Him and Won't Cost You Much.

A LIBRARY FREE

You can't build anything unless you first have a foundation, whether it's a ten story hotel or a success. Neither a house nor a man can reach any great height unless it has something to stand on. You build a foundation for your home in order that your family may be protected. Now, is it not equally wise to build a foundation for a success for your children in order that their future, too, may be protected.

Education is the only sure foundation which will elevate character and brains to the height where their possessor can reach the fruit which nature intended should be his. The money of your neighbor can give his boy a college education; but it is not the teaching that a boy receives but the learning that counts in the race of life. You know it is the knowledge that you acquired by puzzling out problems yourself, and not that which was given you offhand by a perfunctory teacher that has stood you in good stead.

And because you cannot to-day afford to send your boy to college you need not fret, for a prize has been placed within your reach, which while retaining him within your own home circle away from any possibility of contaminating influence, gives him access to all the information that he could secure within college walls. The Encyclopedia Britannica is the learning of the world concentrated; it has all there is to a college education except the college buildings and the "larks of the students." This encyclopedia can be secured by you for your children free of cost. Is it not worth securing? May be you were a college man yourself. Then you'll find this encyclopedia a valuable aid in your life work. It is the surest stand that vaulting ambition can have.

BACCILLI IN BLOOD.

Recent experiments as read before the last Congress of Surgeons at Berlin, leave no doubt that the true way to CLEAR THE SYSTEM OF MICROBI is through the pores of the skin. It has been found that a remedy which kills the Microbi will also destroy the life of the patient; but it has also been found that the Microbi can be forced out through the skin, and it is in this way that S.S.S. relieves the system of poison.

HAVING SUFFERED much from Contagious Blood Poison, after using half a dozen bottles of S.S.S. I was RESTORED TO PERFECT HEALTH, and all eruptive sores disappeared. You are at liberty to make any use of my statement that you wish.—J. CROSBY BYRON, 208 Third Avenue, Pittsburg, Pa.
